Levee District May Hike Sewer Fee

Engineers Recommend 20-Cent Monthly Rise For Sewage Treatment

A move to increase minimum monthly sewer rental fees of the Lansdowne Sewage Treatment plant built and operated by the East Side Levee and Sanitary district — affecting most Venice and Madison sewer users — was disclosed in a regular meeting of the levee district board of trustees yesterday.

The proposal came to light in a letter to the board from Horner & Schiff engineering firm of St. Louis recommending that the minimum monthly rental fee be increased from its present $1.15 to $1.35. Horner & Schiff are consulting engineers for the levee district.

Board members took no action. As soon as the recom-

GC Woman Killed Today in Crash At Sunset Hill

Ms. Jennie F. Vollmer, 74, of 2721 Washington avenue, was killed shortly after 10 a.m. today in a two-car accident at Route 157 and Interstate 270. She was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital at 10:53 a.m.

Two other persons were injured and were being treated after noon today in the emergency room at the local hospital. They are Louis Tadich, 73, of 2713 Ralph street, and Mrs. Mary Besta, 66, of 2712 Washington avenue. The extent of their injuries were not immediately determined.

Vollmer was driving in a funeral procession to Calvary Cemetery for the interment of Henry J. Carey, 2730 Washington avenue, when the accident occurred, according to Edward Werner, deputy coroner.

It was believed that she was at the rear of the procession of about 20 cars.

Survivors include her husband, Nicholas L. Vollmer, and a daughter, Mrs. Edna (Vivian) Warfield of Granite City. Arrangements are pending at the Lahey funeral home.

Police Officers Promoted

Mayor to Investigate Lewis Tavern Activity

Acting Mayor Raymond Kozielek will conduct an investigation into activities at the John Lewis tavern, he informed the Madison city council Tuesday night.

He said the tavern, at 490 Madison avenue, has been the scene of many incidents in the past two years, with police reports numbering about 125, including a shooting at the tavern on Feb. 25, and the mayor asked for names of witnesses who may testify at a liquor commission hearing at a later date.

Mayor Kozielek said, "I haven't forgotten it and I intend to fulfill my responsibility as liquor commissioner."

He added that "our city has been the target of much abuse in the past. If I can in any way, and I know that I can, erase this mark, I will."

"I will conduct this investigation, I will make sure all of our citizens are protected, those relating to the liquor commission."

Mitchell Girl, First Grader, Improving from Meningitis

A Mitchell school first grader, Kay Herman, 6, who visited an uncle at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo., last month, is a patient at Children's Hospital in St. Louis undergoing treatment for meningitis. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Herman of Rural Route Two, were advised this week that she is over the critical stage of the illness and her condition is improving.

School Supt. B. J. Davis announced Tuesday, "The medical staff of Children's Hospital and the family doctor do not feel preventive medicine for other children is required at this time and have not indicated any need for suspension or interruption of classes."

However, parents are urged to watch their children for signs of respiratory illness and to contact their family doctor should such symptoms appear.

Notes to Parents

Parents were sent home to the notes of all pupils at Mitchell during the week of the illness and of the physician's visits.

The youngster first became ill with tonsillitis on Feb. 24 after visiting an uncle at the Army base where meningitis is prevalent. She was admitted to the St. Louis hospital on Saturday in a serious condition.

A hospital spokesman said tests were strongly indicative of a bacterial type of meningitis, but the hospital was unable to make a positive diagnosis of meningococcal meningitis since the child was on medication before entering the hospital.

All members of her immediate family were placed on preventive medication but are not restricted to their home.

Physicians point out that the practice of good personal hygiene, getting enough sleep, not getting too tired and eating properly is the best prevention against getting meningitis, which is an inflammation of the linings of the brain and central nervous system.

Fire at Dairy Queen

Causes $3500 Damage

Fire which started in an exhaust fan in the kitchen area of the Dairy Queen at 3001 Pontoon road resulted in damages of about $3000 to the building and about $500 to contents Tuesday afternoon.

Jack Harper, chief of the Long Lake Fire department, said the fire apparently started when the fan motor became overheated. The fire raged along the kitchen wall and burned through the roof. Firemen were at the scene about 30 minutes.

GC Town Budget Tops $300,000

Projected Relief Cost Rises $50,014; Salary of Assessor Up $5420

A Granite City township budget of $310,889 for the 1970-71 fiscal year—up $67,324 over the appropriation of last year—has been posted for public inspection in the office of City Clerk Homer "Cal" Pendleton, who also serves as town clerk.

The new record high appropriation for township purposes includes $115,050 in projected expenditures of the town fund, $108,849 in proposed expenditures for township purposes and the general assistance (relief) fund and $15,000 for municipal retirement fund payments.

Town fund appropriations in the new budget are $17,720 more than the 1969-70 budget last year which set up $162,530 in town fund expenditures. The new general assistance budget of $180,849, however, is a rise of $50,014 over last year's general assistance appropriation of $130,745. Projected cost of municipal retirement fund payments.

He added that it clearly states "the mayor shall appoint. That doesn't mean 'may,' it means 'must.' It is my legal opinion that the ordinances as drafted are inconsistent with the state statutes and are improper and illegal."

Council members said nothing as the mayor pointed out the ordinances on the chiefs' appointments had not been prepared by the city attorney and were not in the best interest of the citizens of Granite City.

He related early Granite City history, pointing out that from 1896 to 1965, the mayor appointed the chiefs. Then there was a council-mayor dispute, and the council took away the power from the mayor.

He added, "If you have a different law; show me."

GC Army Depot to Close By July '71 as Part of U. S. Economy Program

Property to Be Sold; 257 Buildings on 977 Acres, 1 1/2 Million Square Feet Under Roof; Present Staff 1430 Civilians, 300 Soldiers

The Granite City Army Depot will be closed by July 1971, Congressman Melvin Price was informed yesterday afternoon in Washington by the Department of Defense. The property is being declared excess and will be placed for sale.

The 28-year-old military installation is one of 100 bases being inactivated as an economy move. It was not immediately disclosed where the tasks of storage and repair of supplies and equipment will be transferred.

Speculation began immediately on possible uses for the 977-acre site, which contains 257 buildings, 23 miles of paved roads and 29 miles of railroad track.

There are 1,304,000 square feet of warehouse space under roof, plus 724,000 square feet of shed space. In addition, improved open space available for all-weather use totals 9,467,000 square feet and unimproved open space totals 844,000 square feet.

The announcement in Washington mentioned 849 civilian positions and 38 Army personnel at the Army Depot but the current civilian payroll consists of 1430 persons; the figure includes a current total of 339 women employees. There are about 300 soldiers on the base at present.

Dismissal Moves Denied in Some Cases in Court

Motions by the state attorney's office for dismissal of criminal indictments were denied by Circuit Judge James O. Monroe in several cases during show cause hearings conducted Tuesday in Edwardsville.

A charge of arson against James Bernard Geitz, 19, of Madison, was retained on the docket though the defendant currently is committed as a sexually dangerous person. He was arrested in November of 1968 on charges of arson and rape in the Numeaki area.

A charge of aggravated kidnapping against Eddie Woods of East St. Louis was removed from the docket with leave to restate as Woods now is serving a penitentiary sentence on another charge. For two companions in the case, Larry Isaac of East St. Louis continues to be a fugitive and Michael Crockett of East St. Louis, who testified for the state against Woods, has been granted five years probation.

Charges of burglary and arson against Clement West, 22, of Venice, also were removed from the docket with leave to restate as he currently is in prison. He was arrested last July in Venice.

Nolle Prossed in '68

A burglary charge against Earl Michael Jones of Granite City was dismissed because of insufficient evidence involving a break-in at Woodmonte Olds agency on Feb. 21, 1968. Of others originally indicted in the case, the count against Richard Marion Barker was nolle prossed last April 15, and Jimmie Poe of Granite City was granted a year's probation on the same date on a reduced charge of theft of more than $150.

Armed robbery charges of John Steven Long and George Whitehead of Granite City were dismissed as both have been convicted on other charges. The case involved robbery at Clark's service station on March 4, 1969.

Others dismissed were theft charges against Ronald Davis and Richard Wilkerson of Granite City as they have pleaded guilty to other charges. They had been involved in an auto theft and burglary ring.

WITHOUT A QUAD-CITY TRAFFIC FATALITY

The economy program disclosed yesterday affects Army, Navy and Air Force operations, Cong. Price noted that the Fifth Army, headquartered in Chicago, is to be combined with the Fourth Army, and directed from Texas.

Word of the inactivation had not yet reached the Depot when officials at the Granite City Depot were notified by the Press-Record of the Washington announcement.

The cost-cutting effort is attributed to the government's "guns and butter" financial squeeze. Military commitments, including the Vietnam war, are competing for budget dollars with expanding urban assistance. Changed and somewhat reduced military needs also were cited yesterday.

The potential economic impact on this region from eliminating the Army Depot is being studied here and hope was expressed yesterday that the large base could be put to some other use, perhaps by one or more industries. Cong. Price called the closing "a real blow to the economy of our area."

The council went on to other business, but a flare-up occurred about an hour after the meeting.

Granite City Mayor Donald Partney said city acquisition of the Depot should be handled with the administration building converted used as a city police station and housing there perhaps used for use by the elderly. He said warehouse space could be leased to other parties.

Permanent structures at the local Depot include huge warehouses and processing buildings, along with office structures and apartments. Recreation facilities include a golf course, swimming pool and club building.

Great River Road Link
The Great River Road (Federal Aid Route 151) has been extended from the north to the main gate of the base at the western end of Niedringhaus avenue.

The road is scheduled to be extended to Venice and eventually to East St. Louis.

At the time of the observance of the 25th anniversary of the Depot in 1967, it was noted that shipments were taking place around-the-clock, many of them destined for Vietnam.

Stock Worth $1 Billion
Value of stock maintained at the Depot had risen to $1 billion in 1967 and the annual operating budget was $25 million, including $12 million in wages. The 849 civilian and 39 military jobs represent annual wages of $10,100,000.

Some cutbacks have occurred since 1967 due to federal budget limitations but the Depot has continued to be the scene of busy, diverse activity. Auto traffic headed toward and away from the Army base lies Niedringhaus avenue through the downtown business district each morning and afternoon.

City Treatment Plants
The Depot site includes sewage treatment plants of the cities of Madison, Venice and Granite City, the latter plant also treating sewage from the Depot. The military base is situated west of the Quad-Cities and immediately east of the Mississippi River.

The Pentagon said 93,900 jobs will be affected nationally and that $914 million will be saved yearly. The St. Louis metropolitan area is expected to lose 3162 civilian and military jobs. Cutbacks are scheduled at the Army Mobility Equipment Command, Army Aviation Systems Command, Air Force Aeronautical Chart and Information Center and Defense Contract Administration Service, and at Fort Leonard Wood in Missouri.

Planned in '17, built in '42. Blueprints for the Depot were first drawn up in 1917 but the proposed construction was shelved when world war I ended.

After world war II broke out, it was decided to proceed with the project and ground was broken in April 1942 for what was to be known as the Granite City Engineer Depot.

A trained cadre of personnel arrived from Columbus, O., in August 1942 to begin operation of the depot. The base continued under the command of the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers until August 1962, when reorganization of the overall Army logistic system resulted in creation of the U. S. Army Supply and Maintenance Command.

In July 1966, the Granite City Army Depot was placed under the U. S. Army Materiel Command.

Operations began on a limited scale Aug. 9, 1942, with hiring and supply acquisition handled from offices in the Venice city hall. Activity reached a peak in July 1943 when over 32,000 tons of material requiring 4500 railroad cars were received and shipping.

2000 Employees in 1944
Peak employment of 2000 was reached in 1944. During world war II, 1500 officers and over 2000 enlisted men were trained here for engineering supply and maintenance functions.

Operations tapered off in the late 1940s only to increase in tempo again to support troops in Korea in 1950. New buildings occupied during the Berlin controversy in the fall of 1961 and with the escalation of the Vietnam fighting in the mid-1960s.

From the latter years of world war II until the present, numerous building programs increased the Depot facilities and refined the wartime living and working conditions. There are now many permanent structures.

The Depot was the scene of a worldwide conference in January 1953, when depot commanders from bases all over the globe converged on Granite City to compare supply storage and processing procedures.

Close Link to Vietnam
Just as it helped markedly to achieve the Allied victory in world war II, the Army Depot during the past several years played a key role in the Vietnam war.

Beginning in the spring of 1966, it accepted the responsibility of delivering to units in the field within 144 hours whatever supplies were considered to be vital. Due to the shipping time involved, items were built or were located and adapted with such speed that they had left Granite City within 16 hours of the original notification that they were needed.

Multi-million-dollar fires occurred at the Depot in 1944 and 1947, and the installation aided in fighting Mississippi River floods in 1942, 1943, 1944, 1947 and 1951.

The Depot was called on to aid Gillespie-Bunker Hill area tornado victims in 1948 and for many years has maintained an active bomb disposal unit.

Honored by Community
The military base was honored by the Quad-City community on its 12th and 25th anniversaries in 1954 and 1967.

Soldiers stationed there are honored annually by the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce. Base commanders, in order, during the 28-year history have been Col. James R. Brownell, ments at $15,000 is up $4500 over last year's $10,500.

Elks to Nominate

MORE ABOUT

GC Town

Election Cost Cut
Of the total increase in the town budget, $7320 is in compensation of town officers which is budgeted this year at $24,010, compared with $16,690 last year. Since there are no township elections this year, the appropriation for election expense is cut in the new budget from $5500 last year to $1500 in the new measure.

Expenses of the assessor's office, payable out of the town fund, are budgeted at $79,940 this year, up from last year's $65,340 and "other services and expenses" are projected this year at $6200, up from $4100. Bulk of the increase in the budget of the general assistance is in projected expenditures for home relief which are set at $120,590 this year, compared with $86,945 last year. Proposed expenditures for hospitalization is set in this year's budget at $20,100, up from $15,100, while administration costs are set at $28,300, compared with last year's $25,500.

A breakdown of the home relief appropriation shows a $40,000 increase in this year's appropriation for food costs for general assistance clients, with the new food budget set at a total of $55,000. Last year's food budget was $45,000. Projected expenditures for rent payments for relief clients is set this year at $8000, compared with $6500 last year.

Home Relief Costs
The new budget also includes a total of $8000 for medical care, up from the $5000 budgeted for this purpose for the 1969-70 fiscal year. Other items for home relief in this year's budget are $100 for fuel, unchanged from last year; $2000 for light, up from $1500; $200 for clothing, unchanged, and $100 for transportation and moving, unchanged from last year. The home relief budget also includes $25,299 for payment of approved unpaid bills, compared with $27,645 budgeted for that purpose a year ago.

The tentative budget will remain on file for public inspection until a public hearing scheduled for 6 p.m. April 14. The annual town meeting in which the budget and 1970-71 tax levy is subject to approval by Granite City electors will be held at 7 p.m. the same night following the public hearing.

Granite City township has no road and bridge fund and no budget for that purpose is required.

The appropriation bill now on file projects an anticipated revenue of $115,159 in the town fund during the year, which would leave a balance of $109 in that fund if expenditures are made as budgeted. The budget also sets up expected income of $185,860 in the general assistance fund, which projects a $5000 balance in that fund at the end of the fiscal year. Income of $15,225 is expected for the municipal retirement fund, indicating a balance of $225.

Barton's Salary Up
The town fund item for compensation of town officers includes a major increase in the salary of Township Assessor James Barton, set at $13,500. The assessor's salary last year was budgeted at $8960. Compensation of the supervisor of general assistance is unchanged at $6000.

Increased compensation for the chief deputy assessor, clerk and deputy assessors also is provided in a new budget of last year. The compensation for the chief deputy, clerk and deputies this year is $87,000, compared to $54,000 last year.

Other items of office expense include travel at $1200, down from last year's $2400; janitor and supplies, $1540, compared with $1500; office rent, $4200, up from $2340; utilities, $500, up from $300 and telephone, $1200, up from $1000.

Construction Trailer Explodes, Wrecked

An explosion wrecked a construction trailer owned by the LaDue Building & Engineering Corp. of St. Louis at 8:35 p.m. Tuesday at 3707 Collinsville road, Nameoki township. No one was hurt.

The cause remained unknown after a bomb disposal squad from the Granite City Army Depot was called to the scene to investigate. The contractor is erecting a building at the site for a Chicago-based tractor sales firm. The Madison county sheriff's department knew of no labor difficulty or other factor that may be involved.

Maclair Gets Contract For Route 162 Paving

A contract for resurfacing 4.11 miles of Highway 162 between Illinois Route 111 and Glen Carbon was awarded by the Illinois state highway department yesterday to the Maclair Asphalt Co. of East St. Louis on a low bid of $189,004.

The contract was among a number awarded for improving a total of 151 miles of state highways at a cost of $8 million. The projects are part of Gov. Ogilvie's program to upgrade older highways that are too narrow or too rough for today's traffic, according to Public Works Director William F. Cellini.

The Highway 162 resurfacing project will be financed entirely by state funds and therefore is not subject to the federal freeze on highway funds that is delaying more than $100 million in highway work in Madison and St. Clair counties. Work on the resurfacing is expected to get under way within the next few weeks, weather permitting.

Neighbors, Friends Aid Fire Victims

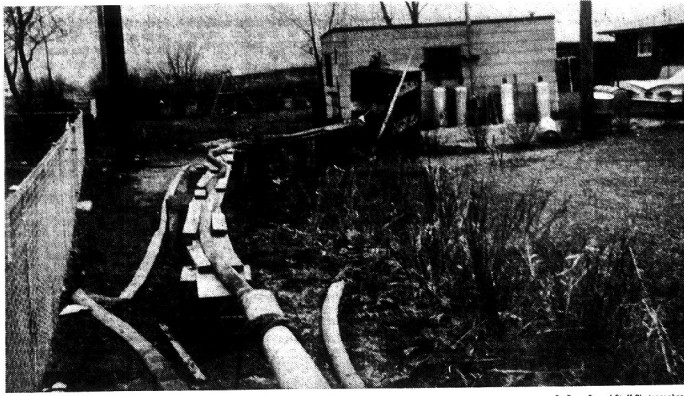

The family of Earl Trebing, whose home was gutted by fire last Friday evening, has expressed gratitude this week to neighbors, friends and members of the Church of God of Prophecy in Madison for assistance.

Mr. Trebing, a Laclede Steel Co. employee, said the family is staying temporarily with relatives in Granite City, and the older of five daughters are with friends in Venice.

"We've received clothing and food and even cash," Trebing said. The family does not yet know what items of furnishings can be salvaged or if the house at 124 Abbott street will be rebuilt.

Relatives of GC Woman Murdered in Detroit

Funeral services are set for today for Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Dale Flynn, an uncle and aunt of Mrs. Robert (Edwina) Thompson of Granite City, who were murdered in their Detroit, Mich., home between 8 p.m. Friday and 1 p.m. Saturday.

Former residents of Edwardsville, the couple was found beaten and stabbed, and the home had been thoroughly ransacked. Mr. Flynn was found in the garage and his wife in the house. A member of the family said the Flynn's dog also was killed.

A spokesman in the Detroit homicide bureau said they have no clues in the weekend slayings, and that robbery appeared to be the motive for the double murder.

Mr. Flynn, 65, and his wife, the former Margaret Senn, 60, lived at 1484 Kentucky avenue, Detroit. Surviving is one daughter, Mrs. Dennis (Kay Margaret) Hayes of Detroit.

Mr. Flynn was preceded in death by three brothers, William Thomas Flynn and Joseph F. Flynn both of Edwardsville and James Edward Flynn of Granite City, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Flynn Gerke of Edwardsville.

James Edward Flynn was a chief special agent for the Illinois Terminal Railroad for 33 years and Joseph F. Flynn had been employed for 21 years at the open hearth of Granite City Steel Co.

Funeral services have been tentatively set for 11 a.m. today in Detroit with burial in Parkview Memorial Cemetery, Detroit.

C. of E. to be Asked to Allocate Lynch Ave. Sewer Repair Funds to Replace Lines

Still hopeful for replacement of the ever-breaking Lynch avenue sanitary sewer line, Granite City officials members of the Corps of Engineers to be asked to allocate funds to replace the line.

Under the Civil Defense emergency disaster plan, the Corps of Engineers is to do the job with federal funds, but under the program only repairs can be carried, as there is no authorization for "improvements that would be better" than the original condition.

Bids for repairs to the six breaks were opened Tuesday afternoon, and about two weeks will be required for study before a contract award.

Alderman Moerlein, chairman of the Finance committee, urged the meeting of the Street and Finance committees with the Corps of Engineers to request that the money be spent for repairs to be allocated to the city toward a city project for replacement of the entire line.

"Repairs are Waste" Moerlein said, "that repairs are nothing but a waste of money."

He asked Mayor Partney to arrange the meeting. Partney replied that the Finance committee had better be prepared to "come up with the money," as it would be unlikely for the city to receive any more funds under the disaster emergency program until August.

"It's much easier for the Corps of Engineers to get money out of Washington than it would be for the city," he added that it might not be wise for the city to try to change the program at this time.

Rutledge pointed out the suggestion had been made by the city engineer three weeks ago, and the conflict did nothing at this time. "The city is going to do the job, we'll have to have the money to pay the contractor and then obtain reimbursements from the federal government."

Use of surplus funds in the National sanitary sewer accounts was suggested by Nomm, who called upon the city attorney to provide the legal procedures. "I don't think the Corps of Engineers will guarantee the repair work after the job is finished, and then the city will be right back where it started if the breaks continue to occur."

Cost Figures

City Engineer Kenneth Kleiberger said he had talked to the Corps of Engineers earlier Monday and learned they have allocated about $200,000 for the repair work. "That doesn't include the seventh break that occurred about a week ago," he added.

He pointed out that last year the city had called for bids to replace the Lynch avenue and an auxiliary line extending to Pontoon road and had received two cost-plus proposals from local contractors.

"We asked them to give us estimates on what total costs might be and the figures ranged from $105,000 to $200,000. If the city could come up with the money to finance the job, perhaps the reimbursement would come through, and the total cost to the city might be about $30,000," the engineer stated.

C. of E. to be Asked

The bid opening by the Corps of Engineers brought proposals of $209,676 by H. Seebold Inc. of Granite City and $254,447 by Keely Bros. Co. of East St. Louis. The figure does not include the seventh break along the line.

City's Plan

Kleiberger pointed out that under the city's plan for replacement, the cost figures received last year include installation of an added lift station at the junction of the Lynch avenue line with a north-south line to Pontoon road and revamping the lift station at Maryville road.

He added that once the Corps of Engineers completes the repairs, it will be finished with the project and all responsibility for future breaks would rest on the city. "There is no guarantee offered by the Corps of Engineers," he explained.

The city is hoping to replace the 15-foot deep line at a high level about the water table to prevent further collapses of the pipes. Rather than spot repairs, the most successful repair method has been from manhole to manhole, the engineer noted.

Under the Corps of Engineers program only the sections of collapsed line would be replaced.

ment to discuss the future of the bridge and the possibility of closing it permanently.

The council granted a permit to Illinois Power Co. to complete work on gas mains, including a new main in the alley between Sixth and Seventh streets from Washington to Alton avenues, to be completed before street maintenance projects this summer.

A letter from the Southwestern Illinois Law Enforcement Commission announced that a police department management study will be conducted this month, with a report to follow from the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Other projects pending include an alley drain at 1709 Second street, drainage at Carle Steel Co. curbs and gutters along Collinsville avenue, traffic signals at Sixth street and McCambridge avenue and a traffic survey on McCambridge.

Black Egyptians Attend

A request by the Madison-Venice chapter of Black Egyptians to be heard was denied by the council.

At the end of the meeting, Franklin Wooten, who said he was president of the chapter, attempted to address the aldermen.

Fifth Ward Alderman John Haynes objected, saying that the group should go through proper city representatives with any complaints.

The mayor told Wooten that by going through proper channels, he could be placed on an agenda if he is a resident of Madison.

A follow-up of complaints Monday on the taste of water showed that the water tasted satisfactorily but some additional chlorine was applied, accounting for a strange taste.

The council approved installation of a light in an alley between Franklin and Webster streets.

Mayor Kozielek reported that the Southwestern Council of Mayors has ordered a resolution for its March meeting endorsing the late Mayor Stephen Maers. A letter of sympathy was received from the O'Fallon city council.

MORE ABOUT GC Council

later, coming as Moerlein called for council approval for reappointment of two chiefs.

In making his motion, Moerlein said it was his opinion the ordinance had to be published to be legal and that there might be a span of 24 hours or more in which the city would be without chiefs.

"I don't think the council is big enough to bypass the General Assembly in taking over such powers," the mayor said. "The council's attorneys just didn't do their homework. I suggested the council get back together with the attorney who prepared the ordinance and get something legal."

Moerlein replied, "I know of two other cities that have done this and their attorneys approved. The council overrode your veto, and now I think this is the proper procedure to follow."

Mayor Partney proclaimed, "Your motion is out of order." Whitmer motioned for adjournment—a n d—Moerlein, appealed to the council. The adjournment motion was voted down.

Partney told Moerlein, "It will take a court order or mandamus for me to change."

Moerlein appealed the out of order ruling to the council.

"This is the most insane thing I've ever heard in my 15 years on the council," Whitmer remarked.

It was 9:54 p.m., and Alderman Boker walked out.

Mayor Partney held up a tape recorder and announced that he had recorded the meeting. "I just might sell it to a radio station to supplement my income," he added.

"Put it up in front where we can see it," Alderman Basarich called out.

Whitmer walked out of the room.

As the clerk prepared to call the roll on Moerlein's appeal, Jarrett left.

The council overrode the out of order ruling 13-1, with Rutledge voting "no."

"For what ever it amounts to, the motion carried," the mayor remarked.

Moerlein answered that he wanted to call for reappointments of Veizer and Fronsbarger.

Partney replied, "The present appointments run to May 1."

"We want to give them a vote of confidence," Moerlein said.

His motions for the appointments were approved.

As the mayor announced the council should be doing something about the comptroller, whose job was eliminated by the council starting next May 1, the aldermen adjourned.

Park District to Enter 45 Youths at Alton Meet

Forty-five young people representing seven winter recreational activities sponsored by the Granite City park district will compete Saturday in the fifth annual "Recreation Day" event in Alton.

The day-long program, held under the auspices of the Southern Illinois Park and Recreation Association, is expected to attract participants from nine south-central Illinois communities. Events will be staged at various locations throughout the Alton area, Harold Brown, park superintendent said today.

The youthful athletes will depart by chartered bus at 7:30 a.m. Saturday from the Wilson Park ice rink parking area, returning to the same location about 6 p.m.

During the previous four years of competition, team championships have been earned twice by Granite City representatives and twice by Centralia youths. Centralia is the current defending champion. Those taking part from here will represent the park district's high school basketball and bowling leagues; fifth and sixth grade basketball program; and table tennis and volleyball programs. Other communities to compete include Roxana.

5 Persons Hurt In 15 Crashes

Five persons were injured in 15 traffic accidents which occurred on Quad-City area streets and highways since Monday.

Mrs. Shirley Ridenhour, 32, of 4609 Kirkpatrick Homes, was injured when she was struck by an auto driven by William J. Snowden Jr., 2010 Sixth street, Madison, at 4 p.m. Monday at 3300 Namekio road. She had just left another auto and apparently slipped in front of the Snowden car, according to the police report.

Mrs. Ridenhour was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital with pains in the rib area, contusions to the chest and abrasions and contusions to the knees. X-rays were taken.

Joseph J. Krypciak, 22, of Collinsville, was injured when he lost control of his auto at 3:30 a.m. Wednesday on Interstate 270 and Highway 111. The car traveled about 400 feet as it ran down an embankment.

Levee District

While the rental fee schedule sets $1.15 as the minimum monthly payment, collected on a quarterly basis, the amount actually paid is based on the amount of water consumption as billed by the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. and usually exceeds the minimum payment.

When plans for construction of the sewage treatment plant were formulated, the rate schedule was based upon the estimated number of potential users of the connecting sewer lines.

At the time the system was designed, the city of Collinsville, among other communities, was expected to participate in use of the sewage treatment plant for sewage disposal.

Officials of the city of Venice and Madison signed contracts to join the disposal system when it appeared that the minimum rate would be 90 cents per month.

Collinsville later failed to use the facilities of the plant and several stock yard firms which originally had planned to use the system and pay rental fees built their own disposal systems. The treatment plant and its connecting lines were financed with revenue bonds which are repaid with fees collected as sewer rentals.

As a result, the fee scheduled eventually determined by the time the plant was ready to begin operation was fixed at $1.15 as a minimum, with a rising fee scale based on water usage.

Plans Own System
Collinsville, meanwhile, has approved a bond issue to finance construction of its own sewer system and sewage treatment plant. Levee board officials contend that Collinsville is in violation of its original contract with the levee district and that Collinsville be held to the original contract.

The recommendation for an increase in rental fees for other users is expected to revive the contract controversy with Collinsville.

After tabling the engineering firm's recommendation, Ebersold told the board that an arrangement had been worked out with the city of East St. Louis under which the city has been paying $350 monthly for the past two months on a $60,000 bill which the city owes the levee district in sewer rental fees.

East St. Louis has been collecting rental fees from East St. Louis users of the treatment plant, but until early January had paid no part of the money to the levee district.

The treatment plant has been in use nearly two years and the backlog of funds owed the levee district mounted to about $60,000, according to levee board members. Ebersold said an agreement was reached under which the city will make a monthly payment to catch up the amount due the district.

Approved Claims
The board also approved claims totaling $80,035 which included about $30,000 in insurance premiums due during February, and a February payroll of $49,868.

Thomas Staicoff, levee district treasurer, reported that total available funds during February amounted to $346,830. This amount included receipt of $111,700 in flood disaster aid received from the state of Illinois as partial payment of flood damages to levee district user facilities in the July, 1969, flood.

Other revenue included the sale of $200,000 in anticipation warrants to the Bank of Cahokia and receipt of $30,000 in final settlement of 1968 tax collections by Madison county.

The district also received $12,124 in 1968 taxes as final settlement from St. Clair county.

Total disbursements for February amounted to $252,644, leaving a balance of $94,186. Expenditures included $84,220 to the New Memphis Sand & Gravel Co. for repair of two major sewer breaks in the Cahokia and Centerville area as a result of last summer's floods. This payment was made out of the $111,700 disaster aid allotment.

Neither have they received word of reductions or elimination of funds for nursing and dental programs at SIU-SW, a spokesman said.

Durer Files in School Board Bid at Venice

Filing of nominating petitions by candidates in the April 11 school elections slackened in the Quad-City area this week with only one additional filing.

The only additional candidate this far this week is Fred B. Durer jr., incumbent member of the Venice District 3 school board, who filed petitions as a candidate for re-election. Richard Bailey, the other Venice board member whose term expires this year, filed for re-election last week and is the only other candidate to file in Venice thus far.

The office of Venice School Supt. John Pier reported that a set of petitions had been obtained, however, by Edward Salmond.

No additional filings have been reported thus far this week. In Granite City School District 9 where Carl Macios, an incumbent, Robert Crider and Philip Dresel filed petitions immediately after the filing period opened on Feb. 25. Petitions have been obtained by Albert Ward, an unidentified man and by Orville Delmour, who picked up two sets of petition forms. It was reported, two positions are to be filled in Granite City.

In Madison District 12 only two candidates have filed, Chester McManaway and Harold Fisk, both incumbents whose terms expire this year. John Belicoff, the other incumbent member whose term expires, has not yet filed. The board of five at Madison reported ten other sets of petitions have been obtained, most of them by West Madison residents. Three school board posts are open in Madison this year.

Nameoki Twp. Studying Drainage Proposal by GC

Nameoki township officials, who met Tuesday evening with Granite City Mayor Partney on sharing the cost of an enlarged drainage line to be built by the state highway department with the widening of Nameoki road, plan to present the proposal to township electors at the annual town meeting on April 14.

Total added cost of the drainage line has been estimated at $15,000, and the cost may be financed with motor fuel tax funds, the city of Granite City has been advised.

Granite City has expressed hope the added cost would be shared by Nameoki township, since the line which will extend from the vicinity of Morrison road into Granite City will pass through a section of Nameoki township before entering Granite City and crossing Pontoon road to empty into the Nameoki area storm water drainage ditch.

The city had asked the state to increase the size of the line, designed originally to drain only along the proposed widened Nameoki road, from the trip to the Chicago offices of the federal Housing and Urban Development agency to determine if federal funds would be available to construct a drainage ditch from Maryville road near Morrison road along the Alton & Southern Railroad tracks to empty into Horseshoe Lake.

The proposed ditch also would drain areas of Nameoki township, including the flood-plagued Angela drive and Dobry slough.

Mayor Partney said he also invited the Nameoki township officials to join Granite City and leave district officials in a trip to the Chicago offices of the federal Housing and Urban Development agency to determine if federal funds would be available to construct a drainage ditch from Maryville road near Morrison road along the Alton & Southern Railroad tracks to empty into Horseshoe Lake.

Costoff to be Cited In State Liquor Case

Fourth Ward Alderman Christ Costoff is to be cited next Wednesday to appear before the Illinois Liquor Control Commission at Springfield on March 30 in connection with operation of the Starlight tavern in Madison. The liquor license for the tavern has been issued to Costoff's wife since he was elected to an aldermanic position in 1961, but Ivan Maple, executive director of the commission, said "investigators have been working in the area and we feel we have enough for commissioners to cite him."

The state law which prohibits elected officials from holding an interest in a liquor business would apply to Costoff, the director said.

Maples added that dram shop, tax, financial and other records concerning Costoff and the tavern will be presented to the commission for consideration.

A full docket of cases will be set for March 30, and Costoff's case should begin at about 2 p.m. that day, Maples said. Other hearings will begin at 9 a.m.

Vrenick Tops 200 Average in 4 Area Leagues; Hits 728

Jim Vrenick, 3000 Indiana avenue, rolled a 728 series in the Bowling Proprietors Association traveling Masters League at the Ellisville Bowl Tuesday. Vrenick is presently a nominee for the Greater St. Louis Bowling Association Hall of Fame.

Locally, he is bowling in two Friday night leagues at Bowland and carries a 203 average in each. He has a 209 average in a league at Alton.

Before Tuesday, his BPA Masters League average had slipped to 189, but the series of 225, 226 and 277 elevated his average back above 200.

The veteran keeper's highest series in sanctioned league play during his 20 years' experience is an 825.

MHS Tops Marquette, Loses to Collinsville

Madison was ahead 15-13 after the first quarter but the powerful Collinsville Kahoks demonstrated that "two hits don't make a dollar" and grabbed the semifinal loss, winning 80-56 in the Granite City regional high school basketball tournament Wednesday.

In the championship game Friday at 7:30 p.m., Collinsville will play the winner of tonight's Alton-GCHS semifinal.

For the past decade, Collinsville has won this county's regional six times. Granite City opened the 1960s by taking the title, and it was Collinsville in '61. Madison in '62 and then Collinsville for five straight years. Edwardsville won in 1968 and '69.

Lose Lead Before Half
The Kahoks moved ahead of the Trojans for a 37-27 halftime lead and made it 62-37 after a third quarter.

The Trojans' most serious scoring lapse occurred during the second half when the Kahok led changed from 52-35 to 77-30.

Kahoks Bob Shapiro and Jerry Abbott gained control of the boards at both ends of the court and teammate, Kevin Brennan's outcourt shooting spread the Trojan defense.

Scoring for MHS were Tom Noel 15, Joe Dozier 10, Douglas Griggs nine, Phil Davis five, Edward Chandler, John Ervin and William Cannon, each four, Oscar Ragler three, and Chuck Dandridge, two.

Madison ended its season with a 16-11 record. Collinsville's log is 24-2.

MHS Mauls Marquette
The Trojans met very little resistance in taking a first-round 55-37 win from Marquette Monday.

The Explorers of Marquette were scoreless at the end of the first quarter and made their first field goal midway in the third quarter. They were accurate from the foul line, though, hitting 19 of 25 tries.

Marquette trailed at the quarters 10-0, 29-12 and 45-25.

MHS points came from Hagler 10, Noel and Edwardo Chandler each eight, Ervin, William Cannon and Charles Pogorelec each six, Douglas Griggs five, Dozier four and Phil Davis, two.

Collinsville, in first-round play Monday, easily surpassed Wood River 77-47. The Kahoks followed Kevin Brennan's 20 points, Bob Shapiro's 15 and Dave Deets' 15 to quarter leads of 18-13, 35-21 and 51-35.

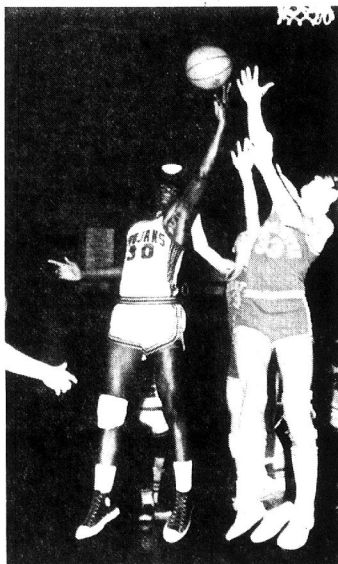

The Oilers' Dwight Watts was held to seven points. During the season, Watts had been an effective scorer against the Warriors.

Managers to Begin Meetings on Rules

Atom Division (boys aged 7-9) baseball managers intending for their teams to play in a Granite City park district sponsored league, will hold an organizational and rules explanation meeting at the district office in Wilson Park, Benton and Oregon streets, Monday at 7 p.m.

Adults interested in helping as a coach or manager are also invited to attend.

Other pre-season meetings are planned for men's slow pitch softball Classic League Thursday, March 12; boys' Bantam Division baseball, ages 10-11, March 16; and boys' Midges Division baseball, ages 12-13, March 19.

TROJAN REBOUND. Madison's Tom Noel (30) causes a rebound away from Alton Marquette players here Monday night.

Southwest Loop to Discuss New Members

Possible admittance of Belleville East and East St. Louis Lincoln high schools into the Southwestern Conference will be discussed at the league's next meeting Monday at Belleville West.

A vote on whether to admit one or both schools could be taken or may be deferred for a month. The principal and athletic director from each member school has a vote. The league's vote must be unanimous for a new member to be admitted.

Lincoln has made applications in other years but the loop declined to expand from a seven-team circuit.

A member school, Wood River will depart from the conference after the 1970-71 scholastic year to join a newly forming conference.

Lincoln and Belleville East would begin competition as Southwestern league members in the fall of 1971 if accepted. The Southwestern Conference president and principal of Belleville West, Jerry Turner, has said the favors admitting both applying schools.

GC-Alton Winner to Meet Kahoks for Title

Granite City's Warriors and Alton's Redbirds will tangle in a semifinal game tonight at 7:30 on the GCHS hardwood for the right to advance to the Granite City regional championship game at 7:30 p.m. Friday with Collinsville.

Both of tonight's foes swept past their first-round challengers with ease Tuesday. GCHS glided past Edwardsville, 68-48. Alton produced more than enough scoring steam, including a third quarter 33-12 advantage, to crush Roxana 101-65.

Dave Melzer pushed in five out of six 20-foot field goal attempts from the corners of the court as GCHS won the first period 16-10.

Hit From Near, Far
When the Tiger defense shifted to protect the flanks, Steve Harris began to hit from out-court and Mike DeRuntz connected from close to the basket.

For the evening, Melzer notched 15, Harris 17, DeRuntz 16, Terry Ripka seven, Jeff Boyles six and Tim Schwendeman and Joe Wallace, two points each.

Put Peterson was Edwardsville's best scorer with 12. At the intermission, GCHS led 34-22, after the third quarter, it was 45-38.

Alton rode roughshod over the Shells, whose high point man hooped 11 points. Greg Horton had 26 and Ed Hightower and Ron Caldwell 18 apiece for the winners, who led 18-12, 41-30 and 74-42 at the quarters.

Regional Loss Closes Venice Season at 21-8

East St. Louis' greater height and cold shooting by the Red Devils from the floor caused Venice to bow to the Flyers 77-60 Monday in the Belleville East regional.

The Devils, including their O'Fallon district championship wins, ended the season with a 21-8 record.

Doug Young, 6-4, was prominent in the Flyers' domination of rebounding. He grabbed 17 of his team's 64 rebounds.

The Devils managed to position themselves for 33 retrieves, led by 5-11 Doug Johnson's ten rebounds.

At the free throw line, Venice enjoyed better accuracy than the Flyers, 73% to 69%.

It was a hot night for the Flyers from the floor. Carrying a 40% season average, they hit two-point paydirt 50% of the time.

Coach Bill Ohlendorf summarized his Devils' effort with, "We didn't shoot well, but otherwise we played good basketball."

High scorer Pessor Gray was guarded after the early going by East Side's top player, Larry Jenkins. The two tied for game scoring honors with 27 apiece. Gray hooped 20% of his shots, also the team's average.

Ohlendorf noted, "Gray was scoring well in the first quarter."

After Jenkins switched assignments, to guard Gray, what was the problem? "About four or five or six inches . . . He's not used to shooting over that height."

Additional Venice points came from Cedric Gardner 15, Doug Johnson nine, Andrei Johnson seven and Jim Ohlendorf, two. The Flyers led at the quarters by 20-12, 42-29 and 56-37.

"We didn't shoot well, but otherwise we played good basketball."

High scorer Pessor Gray was guarded after the early going by East Side's top player, Larry Jenkins. The two tied for game scoring honors with 27 apiece. Gray hooped 20% of his shots, also the team's average.

Ohlendorf noted, "Gray was scoring well in the first quarter."

Schalkham, Christopher, Cripps Pace Victorious Cougar Wrestlers

The SIU-SW wrestling team has finished its first season with a winning 2-1 record.

The Cougars were coached by Larry Kristoff, who was a stand-out on the SIU-Carbondale team in his undergraduate days and subsequently ranked among the top five in international competition. The SIU-SW wrestlers were paced by Granite City's Gus Schalkham with eight victories and two losses.

Wrestling at 118 pounds, Schalkham gave the Cougar team 41 points.

Two other Granite City wrestlers, Mike Christopher and Bruce Cripps, were big point-makers for SIU-SW. Christopher with a 7-3 record, added 30 points, competing in the 134-pound class. Cripps, in the 126-class was close behind with 29 points.

Nighthossian Active

Another Granite City product, Sam Nighthossian, contributed four points while posting an 0-7 mark. He wrestled at 158 pounds.

St. Louisian Bob Prange, a senior at SIU-SW and a graduate of Hazelwood high, was second in Schalkham in production of points for the Cougars. He won eight and lost three matches in the 100-pound class. It was in the heavier classes that SIU-SW didn't fare well.

Terry Sanders, a St. Louis Cleveland high grad and SIU-SW junior, added 24 points to the Cougars' season total by winning six and losing four in the 152-pound division.

Two Belleville Althoff graduates, Bruce Heafner and Joseph O'Saben, contributed 30 points between them to the total. Heafner, wrestling at 150 pounds, had a 4-5 mark, while O'Saben at 177 finished 1-5. Heafner's effort was good for 21 points, while O'Saben added nine.

Completing the roundup of point makers for the Cougars were Litchfield's Robert Plummer, who wrestled in the heavy-weight division and earned 15 points while posting a 3-5 mark, and Steve Bradley of Roxana. Bradley, competing at 167 pounds, earned 16 points with a 2-6 record.

Aids for Pre-School Rubella Clinics Needed

Volunteers wishing to assist with pre-school children who will receive Rubella (German Measles) inoculations at six special clinics next week in the Quad-Cities, are requested to contact Milton Morris, by calling 452-3333.

Dr. Felicia D. Koch, in charge of coordinating arrangements for the program here said today that volunteer help will be needed to perform certain clerical tasks, such as collecting and filing parental permission slips, and to aid mothers bringing more than one youngster to the clinics.

Commissioners to Meet

Unwashed Boy Scout district commissioners will meet at 7:30 tonight at the St. Margaret Mary cafeteria. District club leader training is set for 7:30 p.m. next Monday at the First Methodist Church, Fifth Street and Ewing avenue, Madison.

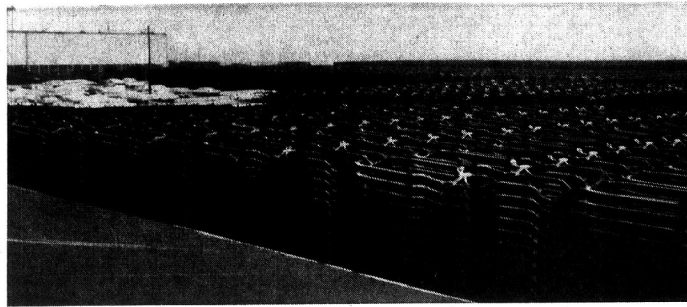

Game Management Improvements Planned

Acting Director Dan Milkovich of the state Department of Conservation has appointed a task force to study the organization, policies and goals of the game division and recommend changes to provide the best game management program for the state.

Citing the importance of game management, Milkovich said limiting the number of deer permits in southern Illinois counties will provide a better deer population and a more stable income from hunters.

He said a study of Pope county for 1965-66 indicated deer hunters spent an average of $30. "Department officials," he added, "believe 5500 deer hunters can be accommodated in Pope county each year. This would provide the county an annual income of $165,000."

LOSE up to 10 lbs. IN AS FEW AS 10 DAYS ON GRAPEFRUIT DIET

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF. (Special)—This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, planes and offices throughout the U.S.

Because this diet really works. We have testimonials reporting on its success. If you follow it exactly, you could lose up to 10 lbs. in as few as 10 days. Then you will start dropping weight on approximately the 5th day and thereafter you will lose 10 lbs. Then you will lose every few days until you get down to your proper weight.

Best of All, there will be no hunger. Revised and enlarged, this diet lets you eat your fill with formerly forbidden foods, such as high-protein foods—steak, roasts, chicken, sea foods, bacon, sausage, eggs, etc.—and still lose weight. This is the same diet used by famous T.V. and movie stars.

The secret behind this "quick weight loss" diet is simple. The grapefruit juice in this diet acts as a catalyst ("trigger") to start the fat burning process. You fill yourself on diet plan, and still lose weight. A copy of this startling successful diet can be obtained by sending $2 to:

Citrus Diet Plan
5211 W. Jefferson
L.A. Calif. 90016

Money — back guarantee if after trying the diet you have not lost weight to your satisfaction. Simply return the diet plan and your $2 will be refunded promptly and without argument.

Tear out this message as a reminder. Decide now to regain the trim attractive figure of your youth.

The individual programs, with titles such as "Should You Keep Off (or On) the Grass?" are highlights of the Sixth Annual Work Week of Health for Youth and were produced by WHA television in Madison, Wis. State Sen. Merrill Ottwein, Edwardsville veterinarian, will address the humanities classes of Madison high school on Wednesday on the theme "Moral and Spiritual Values in a Changing Society."

Dr. Ottwein has spent a great deal of time in Central America and recently returned from an extended trip to Ecuador.

College Grad Job Hopes This Year Appear Confused

"A confusing year — one of muddy waters." That seems to sum up the current job prospect situation for this June's college graduates.

A survey of universities and colleges from coast to coast revealed a situation ranging from "extremely bleak to good."

Generally, college placement officials feel that the job market is down for this year's graduates, but it is too early to begin hanging crepe. One placement director classified the situation as one of general softness — "not at all unlike walking on spring ice."

On-campus recruiting is down somewhat this year with most colleges reporting some cancellations for economic reasons.

Many companies are making only one campus visit, instead of two or three as in past years. Other companies have not cut back on their interviewing, but have fewer offers to make.

This year it's definitely an employer's market. Employers are being much more selective this year, their needs having been cut by the current economic situation. While the past few years have seen business and industry going so far as to hoard manpower, today they are looking for quality rather than quantity. Many companies are adopting a "wait and see" attitude, holding off on job offers until later in the spring when the economic picture may be more in focus.

Hardest hit of the 1970 graduates will probably be engineers. Government cutbacks in defense and aerospace contracts have caused heavy layoffs in some areas of the country, thereby releasing experienced men who get preference over new grads. New fields, such as pollution control, might take up some slack, however. The demand is still good for chemical and industrial engineers in most areas.

SIU-SW Prof's Report On Teacher Affiliations

Labeling of teachers as "union" or "non-union" types is no longer valid, according to a study made by Stefan P. Krchniak, member of the Education Division faculty at the Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

The study shows that beginning teachers — regardless of which teacher organization they joined — tend to have similar characteristics.

Prof. Krchniak, who is chairman of the Educational Administration faculty at SIU-SW, will report on his study at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association in Minneapolis, March 26.

The title of the study is "Organizational Choice of Beginning Teachers in Districts with Competing National Education Association and American Federation of Teacher Affiliations."

The project was centered near New York city, where he conducted a survey of 178 beginning teachers from five school systems in suburban communities.

Prof. Krchniak examined various attitudes beginning teachers have toward membership in the National Education Association (NEA) and the American Federation of Teachers (AFT). Among the factors examined were forced participation in an organization by administrators and the influence of other teachers on the beginning teacher's membership choice.

Prof. Krchniak found that beginning teachers had not been forced by administrators to join any particular teacher organization. The study also revealed that, if beginning teachers came from a family with a tradition of unionism, this did not necessarily persuade the beginning teacher to join the AFT (AFL-CIO) group.

Most beginning teachers, Prof. Krchniak found, though administrators tended to lean toward the National Education Association (NEA), although competition between local teacher organizations served as a check on the extent to which teachers were influenced by administrators.

From this study, Dr. Krchniak points out that in the future there will be an increase in competition between the NEA and AFT and an increase in militant behavior on the part of our teachers.

Prof. Krchniak received his B.S. degree in Education in 1954 at the State University of New York Teachers College in Fredonia, N. Y. He received his Master of Music degree from Manhattan School of Music in New York City in 1957, and the Ph.D. degree in 1968 in Educational Administration from New York University.

Before coming to SIU in 1968, Krchniak was an instructor in the School of Education at New York University.

Prof. Krchniak and his wife, Nancy, live in Edwardsville with their three-year old daughter.

Students Registering For Teacher Exams

Registration forms for the National Teacher Examinations to be given at Southern Illinois University — Southwestern on April 4 can be obtained through the Counseling and Testing Center, General Office building, room 2306.

Less than two weeks remain for prospective teachers to submit their registration for these tests, according to Ruth Murray, program advisor in the Counseling and Testing Center. Registrations must be forwarded in order to reach the Educational Testing Service in Princeton, N. J., no later than March 12.

Harold Hill Graduates, Employed in Indiana

He received a bachelor's degree in science degree in aeronautical and astronautical engineering.

Hill, a 1965 graduate of Granite City high school, is employed as an associate engineer with the Bendix Energy Controls Division at South Bend, Indiana.

Scout Month Observed At Troop 13 Banquet

Boy Scout Troop 13, sponsored by St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, held a banquet in observance of Boy Scout Month Feb. 28 at the church cafeteria. A pot luck supper was served to 130.

Scoutmaster Jeff Wise welcomed the scouts and their families, and the Flaming Arrow patrol presented a flag ceremony. Fr. Lawrence Mattingly led the gathering in prayer.

Following dinner, the scoutmaster displayed plaques the troop received for the 1969 National Camping Award, given by the National Boy Scout Council, and also one for a scoutmaster goal of Nov. 13, 1969.

Wise introduced Jerry Distler, cubmaster of Cub Pack 13; John Poplichak and Co-Chairman Short of the troop's transportation committee; and Mrs. Mary Church and Mrs. Mildred Poplichak, co-chairmen of the fund-raising committee.

Assistant Scoutmaster Bob Grayson was presented the Order of the Arrow, earned at Camp Sunnen in 1969. Fort Russell Wilderness badges for 1969 were awarded to Nick Poplichak and Lindsey Smith.

Frank Kuzma showed a film on Camp Sunnen and plays were presented by the Flaming Arrow patrol on first-aid and the Eagle patrol on "Obtaining Permission." Fr. Mattingly spoke on the need for scouting and on cooperation within the troop.

The troop is planning a chili supper during May, with proceeds going toward the troop camp fund. The scouts will participate in a camping trip on the first weekend in April when they will go to Pere Marquette State Park.

The Flaming Arrow patrol retired the colors, and Nick Poplichak played "Taps." The troop meets each Tuesday at 7 p.m. at St. Elizabeth school.

Public Relations Meet Set at Illinois State

The problems of narcotics and violence in schools and the related responsibilities of school administrators will be discussed by a special panel at the 22nd annual school public relations conference March 14 at Illinois State University.

The program will begin at 9:30 a.m. Five individual topic panels will be held in the afternoon on subjects ranging from school bond referenda to the role of lay groups in public relations.

Lt. Gov. Paul Simon will be the luncheon speaker. The conference is open to anyone interested in school problems and public relations. Reservations, at $3.50 each, may be made with the News and Publications Service at ISU.

Rod, Gun Club Members Learn Outdoor Ethics

Members of the Triangle Rod & Gun Club, a junior group, are learning the ethics of outdoor life as well as fostering good sportsmanship and friendship. The club, which currently has 16 members from 11 to 16 years old, meets at 1 p.m. Saturdays at the home of Marion "Buz" Morris, 240 Waterman avenue, and conducts various activities.

It is planning a father-and-son fishing tournament April 1 at Norfolk lake in Arkansas. It also is planning a trip to Canada this year, conducts annual mother-and-son fishing contests, and holds picnics and fish fries. The boys make and sell their own lures and do other odd jobs to finance trips. Last year they went to Montana. They have a 60-foot house trailer on Coffeen lake where they do research on the plugs and lures they manufacture. They use their own lures in contests and have made excellent catches.

They use the Granite City Steel Co. range to learn the ethics of firearms and practice shooting on a number of field trips in the area. The boys work toward merit badges to go along with green jackets containing a triangle emblem.

During meetings various experts present demonstrations and talks on hunting and fishing. Morris said some local individuals contribute financially to the program.

Morris, of Triangle Heating Co., said his interest stems from his membership in a rod and gun club when he was a youngster in Long Beach, Calif. He said his group at a national sporting goods firm and members traveled all over the country.

Officers of the club are Doug Wilson, president; Kevin Niebur, vice-president; Mark Mag-

NOT TOO TIGHT, Suzanne Shoemaker, 2804 Sunset drive, tells her partner, Ray Ervin of East Alton, as he helps her with her roller skates at the Winter Fest at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern. The event also included a mixer dance, student entertainment and movies.

Anderson Named Head of Roca Young Men's Club

Earl Anderson was elected president of the Roca Young Men's Club at a recent meeting. He succeeds Tim Moore to the post.

It was the third time in Roca history that two brothers have served as president. David Anderson headed the club several years ago. The new president is retiring as treasurer.

Others elected as the club began its 20th year are Mike Loftus, vice-president; Curt Kozer, secretary; Harry Diak, treasurer; and Brad Cross and Dave Brewer, directors.

One of the directors will be selected as second vice-president at a later date because of numerous activities expected to be held during the 20th year celebration. Moore will plan the installation banquet.

It was announced that the Granite City park district has selected the Roca Raiders basketball team to represent the city in a tournament Saturday at Alton.

The Raiders, coached by past member Robert Allen, finished first in their league with an 8-1 record and placed second in the playoffs behind the Young Life Lakers.

Point averages for the season were Tom Rushing, 17; Dave Evans, 15.5; Mike Loftus, 12.2; Rick Cardwell, 10.4; and Mark Rigby, 8.2. Leading in rebounds was Cardwell with 70, followed by Evans with 61.

The club contributed $25 to assist in the education of a young Philippine boy, David Elvinia.

Cardwell, score contest example chairman, announced that the club will send speakers to a Granite City Jaycee meeting to explain the purpose of the club.

Special recognition was given to Cardwell for placing second in the state Elks leadership contest and for representation in the scholar contest.

Mike Loftus was recognized for being chosen by the Daughters of the American Revolution as an outstanding leader, and Dave Brewer was cited as his speech on "Freedom's Challenge" was chosen first in a state contest by a unanimous decision of the judges. The contest was sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Following the meeting cake was served by Women of the Moose.

Teenage Coffee House Is Planned for Area

The Tri-City Council for Reconciliation met Monday evening at First Methodist Church in Madison. Bob Clinton, chairman, conducted the meeting attended by 18 persons.

Plans were discussed for a Teenage Coffee House for the Quad-Cities.

"Operation Family of Metropolitan St. Louis," an organization sponsored by the Danforth Foundation to promote communication, understanding and acceptance between the black and white races was explained by John Dalton, and members were urged to participate and to recruit other black and white families for the project.

The Tri-City Council for Reconciliation has been organized to help in all areas of community interest. It is sponsored by the National Board of Missions of the Methodist Church and meetings are held the first Monday of each month at First Methodist Church in Madison. Persons interested in social, economic, educational and cultural development of the Quad-City area are invited to attend. Individuals with personal needs or problems with which they need help will be directed in solving their problems, it was explained.

Further information concerning the principles and functions of the Tri-City Council for Reconciliation may be had by contacting Rev. Dean Blackburn at First Methodist Church in Madison or contacting the chairman, Bob Clinton, at 877-6014.

Persons interested in social, economic, educational and cultural development of the Quad-City area are invited to attend. Individuals with personal needs or problems with which they need help will be directed in solving their problems, it was explained.

Urban Development in Quad-Cities to Increase

(2nd in a Series)
Urban development in the Quad-City area will continue in the Pontoon Beach and northeastern portions of Granite City, according to the new Madison county land use plan prepared by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Plan Commission.

The SIMPAC report also sees redevelopment and re-use of the older core areas of Granite City, Madison and Venice.

But two major factors which could be detrimental to the development of the district, including the conflict between rail and vehicular traffic and the unfavorable soil conditions, the report points out.

Residential development of the single-family variety will continue in a northerly and northeasterly direction from Granite City and the Pontoon Beach area. Medium-density residential areas has been proposed for several locations within the district.

Transportation Networks

These uses have excellent location with respect to the regional transportation network and also the local transportation network.

The two areas designated for medium-density use, Pontoon Beach and the area south of Interstate 270 could possibly be developed for mobile home courts, according to the report.

Currently, the medium-density residential area designated at the intersection of Illinois Route 203 and Interstate 270 has begun to develop in this manner.

The older core areas of Granite City, Madison and Venice are proposed for medium-density residential which will require some redevelopment and intensification of existing uses. If the older core areas of the three cities are to expand with any population growth and continued vitality, they must be renewed and residential uses intensified, the planners stress.

Commercial Centers

They propose the establishment of several secondary commercial centers in the Quad-Cities at strategic locations with respect to the regional transportation network and higher density residential land uses.

It is anticipated that the secondary commercial shopping areas will develop to serve local residents of the area. The commercial areas will be primarily convenience shopping centers and will not become regional in character.

Three of the proposed secondary commercial areas shown for the district already have been developed — downtown Granite City, Nameoki Village and Madison Avenue. The other two secondary commercial areas are intended to serve the northern portion of the Granite City area and Mitchell.

Proposed industrial development in the area is located in a band between proposed Route 3 and the Mississippi river northward and south of Granite City and adjacent to Madison and Venice.

Industrial Expansion

The broad south of Granite City is a consolidation of the existing industrial development and provides some room from expansion of the existing industry.

It is anticipated that major industrial growth will occur in the area between the Mississippi river and the Great River Road. This area is the least developed of the two areas designated for industrial uses, and it also has the advantage of having better access to the Great River road and port facilities at the Chain of Rocks canal.

The area proposed for recreation in the southern portion of the district is the recently designated Horseshoe Lake state park. Gov. Ogilvie recently signed two bills appropriating $2 million for the purchase of 1700 acres which includes the Horseshoe lake bed and adjacent property.

Eventually it is hoped that the development of Horseshoe Lake state park will be expanded in a southeasterly direction to connect with an enlarged Cahokia Mounds state park, providing Madison and St. Clair counties with a centrally located regional recreation facility.

Traffic Crash Ratio Still High; 5 Die in February

Five traffic fatalities during February, along with 221 accidents and 94 personal injuries, continued the pattern of a rising accident ratio in the Quad-City area and increased to six the total number of persons killed in or near the area during the first two months of this year, according to a study of accident reports filed with area authorities.

While the February total of 221 traffic accidents was a drop of 41 below the 262 mishaps occurring in January, it was an increase of 19 over the number of accidents in February last year. The 94 personal injuries resulting from February crashes declined 15 from January's 109 injury cases, but a rise of 11 over February 1969. Thus the number of accidents, injury cases and fatalities showed increases over statistics of the same month a year ago.

February's five fatalities were an increase of four over the one fatal accident reported in January.

During the 12 months of last year, the Quad-City area set a new record traffic toll in recent years of 2662 accidents, 1294 personal injuries and 49 traffic deaths. The 1969 traffic toll was the highest since 1954 when 44 persons were fatally injured in area traffic accidents.

The total of 483 accidents for January and February is an increase of 66 over the 417 mishaps reported during the same two-month period last year, while the 203 personal injuries of the two-month period this year is up five over the 198 occurring in the same period last year, while the 203 personal injuries of the two-month period this year is up five over the 198 occurring in the same period last year, while the 203 personal injuries of the two-month period this year is up five over the 198 occurring in the same period last year.

Slight Decline in State Work Force

Illinois Personnel Department figures released last week reveal the first reversal of the steady growth in state employment in a dozen years. Employees under the Personnel Code, which accounts for more than 90% of all personnel under the governor, declined by 568, or 1.9%, during 1969. On Jan. 31, 1969, 51,695 employees were listed under the Personnel Code, compared to 52,263 a year earlier.

Employees exempt from the Personnel Code increased by 194, or 1.6%, during 1969. On Jan. 31, 1969, 51,695 employees were listed under the Personnel Code, compared to 52,263 a year earlier.

Easter Programs To Be Published

The Press-Record will again publish Easter programs for churches of the Quad-Cities. Pastors or church secretaries are requested to submit the programs well in advance of Easter for completion by the news staff.

The programs are being scheduled for publication the week of March 22nd. The programs may be either mailed or brought to the Press-Record office, 1815 Delmar avenue.

Job Openings In Area Listed

A few job openings are available in the local area, according to Malcolm A. Thompson, manager of the local Illinois State Employment Service office.

Thompson said that while employment opportunities are limited, openings exist for professional engineers, foundry workers, electrician, pipefitters, drafters, insurance salesmen and porters. There are a few openings also for jobs normally held by women, such as nurse, bookkeeper and stenographer.

The Illinois State Employment Service provides service to employers and applicants without cost to either. Interested persons may apply to the local office located at 2050 Iowa street.

Depot Ordnance Men Assist IRS in Arrest

Two members of the ordnance detachment of the Granite City Army Depot assisted special investigators of the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms division of the Internal Revenue Service in the arrest of a Jacksonville man charged with violation of the Gun Control Act of 1968.

He is Sherman Dale Williams, 27, charged with selling illegal weapons to special investigators on type-separate occasions last month. The ordnance men checked the safety of explosives prior to their removal and transport to the local depot. If found guilty, Williams can be fined up to $5000 and sentenced to 10 years in prison for each count.

Property Damage May Be Deductible On Income Tax

Damage to a car, home or other non-business property may qualify as a deduction on federal income tax returns, Jay G. Philpott, district director of Internal Revenue for central and southern Illinois, said today.

Tax deductions may usually be taken when the damage to non-business property occurs from a natural disaster such as a fire, flood, storm or hurricane. Losses from theft may also be deducted. However, losses resulting from such causes as rust, erosion, termites, moths or disease are not deductible.

Philpott said that the distinction between a deductible and a non-deductible casualty rests on whether the event causing the disaster was sudden or unexpected whereas damage from termite or settling due to erosion is not deductible since it occurs over a long period of time.

Philpott said that on real property held for personal use, the amount of the loss is either the adjusted basis of the property or the decrease in its fair market value, whichever is lower. On personal property, the cost or the decrease in fair market value, whichever is lower, is the amount of the loss. If the loss is covered by insurance, this compensation should be subtracted from the amount which may be deducted.

Only the amount of the net loss of property used for personal purposes, in excess of $100 per casualty or theft, is deductible. Married taxpayers filing joint returns need to exclude only $100 for each casualty loss. If they file separate returns, each is subject to the $100 exclusion.

Damage to a car may also qualify as a casualty loss if the accident was not due to the taxpayer's negligence or willful act. Philpott said that no deduction may be taken for amounts paid for damage to another car with which the taxpayer collided.

On theft losses, the deduction may be taken in the year it is discovered. No deduction is permitted for lost or mislaid property. Publication 547, "Tax Information on Disasters, Casualty Losses, and Thefts," furnishes more detailed information on tax treatment. Send a post card to Forms Distribution, P. O. 'Ice Capades' Ticket Requests Start Early Although ten days still remain before all reservations must be submitted for the Granite City park district's trip to the 1970 "Ice Capades" at the St. Louis Arena, local ice show enthusiasts already are placing their ticket requests, Harold said this week.

A total of 135 reserved seats is available through the park district for the ice show on Thursday, March 26, at the Arena. Similar outings in recent years have been sold out, Brown said, in reminding local patrons to order tickets early.

Seating in the Arena Circle will cost $4.75 for adults and $2.25 for children under 16 years. The ticket price includes the cost of round-trip transportation by chartered bus, Brown noted.

Buses will leave the Wilson Park ice rink at 6:30 p.m. March 26, arriving at the arena in ample time for the eight o'clock show.

Reservations will be accepted before Monday, March 16, by calling the Wilson Park office, at 877-3059.

The law makes educational assistance available to wives of widows of veterans with service-connected disabilities, and widows of veterans or servicemen who die of service-connected causes. Also eligible are wives or widows of veterans who die of non-service-connected causes while totally and permanently disabled. In addition, the law covers children of such veterans and servicemen.

Johnson also reported that one trainee in six was under 25 years of age when she entered training.

The VA chief added that more than half of the wives and widows trainees, about 54%, pursued their education in college, while about one in 12, just over 8%, studied in graduate schools.

Almost half of the college trainees, 48%, were enrolled on a part-time basis, while just over 80% of those studying below college level did so on a full-time basis, Johnson said.

Both were northbound on McCambridge when the mishap occurred.

The girls enjoyed the pool facilities from 9 to 10 p.m. and utilized the "Y" gymnastic equipment for the remainder of the evening. Serving as chaperones were Mrs. Gloria Ludwig and Mrs. Sharon Ahrens.

Among those taking part were Jane Cowan, Kathy Clemenson, Debbie Hall, Evelyn Howard, Barbara Miller, Chris Rowe, Janet Rutkowski, Rosie Simons, Lanette Squires, Betty Thompson, Debbie Wallace and Mary Worthen.

Proceeds derived from future benefit projects planned by club members will be used to defray expenses of a senior trip to the Ozark region of Missouri.

Plans for a bake sale within the next two weeks and future benefit projects, including a car wash event, were discussed by members of the Iota Mu Rho Tri-Hi-Y club, who met Friday at the Tri-Cities YMCA for a recreational evening and slumber party.

Illinois Offers 1st Plan to Prevent Delinquency

Illinois has submitted the nation's first comprehensive state plan for juvenile delinquency prevention and control to federal officials, Gov. Ogilvie announced this week.

The Illinois Law Enforcement Commission, the governor's strategic planning agency in the state's war on crime, submitted the plan to the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. If the plan is approved by HEW officials, Illinois will become eligible for federal funds under the Juvenile Delinquency Prevention and Control Act of 1968.

The plan stresses the need for a judicial system dealing separately with young delinquents and with dependent or neglected children in need of supervision. Included in the 24 projects outlined are: diagnostic and treatment services for juveniles at the community level; consolidation of juvenile detention facilities on a regional basis and development of community correction centers; a model educational facility to accommodate problem students and legal representation for juvenile defendants.

Ogilvie said Illinois was the only state with a youth advisory board functioning the first year under the 1968 act. In 1969 the commission approved 171 planning and action grants totaling about $4 million to support modernization of Illinois' municipal, county and state criminal justice agencies.

Demo Politics Impeding Fight On Crime-Smith

U. S. Senator Ralph Tyler Smith (R., Ill.) charged Monday that critics of stricter law enforcement are more concerned about the criminal than the victim, and not at all concerned about the policeman.

"I would like to see if these critics would retain their pessimism when faced with a loaded gun on a city street at night," Smith said at the Hancock county Republican dinner in Carthage.

The senator said local police are a citizen's first line of defense. "If we do not give them the tools to do the job we will be stacking the deck in favor of the criminal."

The courts are all too often totally unaware of the problems facing the patrolman on his beat, he said.

"Not enough consideration is given to the conditions under which arrests are made. A patrolman must be able to cope with the brutality of the streets and the legality of the courts in order to save his job and his life."

Adopt Nixon Proposals

Smith charged that a 1969 crime increase in the last decade was a byproduct of Democratic Congressional inaction. "If the Democrats would play politics with crime and start moving on President Nixon's anti-crime proposals, we could begin to solve this problem."

Sen. Smith also appeared Monday in Peoria; Tuesday in Lake Forest; Wednesday in Springfield; and today in Palatine, Winnetka, Danville, Kankakee and Chicago, and today in Peoria, Cumberland, Des Plaines, Peoria, Eureka, Bloomington, Normal and Paris.

His itinerary tomorrow includes Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Park Ridge and Downers Grove, while on Saturday he will present the new Senator Dirksen Marigold to the late senator's wife in Chicago and will visit Vandalla.

The senator also charged this week that the prospective Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, Adlai Stevenson III, is giving an indication to look out on issues of great public concern, including the Chicago riot trial. He said Stevenson may have difficulty in obtaining support from both the Chicago city hall and from liberals who are antagonistic to Chicago officials.

Leadership training for scoutmasters, assistant scoutmasters and troop committeemen will be given on Wednesday evenings for six successive weeks, starting March 11. An orientation session was held last night to initiate the course.

Hours of instruction for both programs were set from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Wesley Stille has been named to instruct the Cub scout series, with Floyd Jordan heading the Boy scout leaders training.

3 Named to Assist in Academy Selections

"We are pleased to be able to add the names of these three distinguished men to our Academy Selection Board," Percy said. "They share backgrounds of outstanding public service and civic involvement."

Serving as Chairman of Percy's selection board is William S. Schuchman of Belleville. Other members include Francis P. Beiriger of Rockford, Richard L. Duchossois of Chicago Heights, Fabbri Robert J. Marx of Highland Park, George F. Neley of Moline, Charles Pappagallo of Robinson and Dr. Dayton S. Pickett of Urbana.

Two workmen at the top of the stack take pieces of the cap from the 'copter to place them in position.

The 'copter and crew were used to move structural members to hoist the chimney liner material from the top of the stack to the ground and to take the four 100-pound cap pieces from the ground to the top of the stack.

The workmen rode a lifting device inside the stack to the top, but to do the remaining work at the top of the stack, they had to climb the outside ladder.

Lights on the stack, which is only 25 feet lower than the St. Louis arch, will be changed periodically by climbing the outside ladder.

GC Sewer Reports Accepted by Council

Financial reports for the Nameoki sanitary sewer system and the sewage treatment plant, giving Jan. 31 balances, were accepted Monday night by Granite City council members.

The sewage treatment plant fund showed total disbursements of $773,679, leaving a balance of $354,026; while the treatment plant construction fund showed disbursements of $1,508,068, leaving a balance of $120,079.

Balances on Jan. 31 in the various funds of the Nameoki area sanitary sewer system were—

Nameoki area sewerage fund, $319,738; sewer lines reserve, $199,061; special sewer construction fund, $335,382; sewerage fund, $10,807; sewer extension fund, $14,411.

For the sanitary lines in the North Granite area, the Jan. 31 balances were—Area 3 construction fund, $20,118; and Area 3 sewerage fund, $16,540.

Alderman Basarich, chairman of the Sewage Treatment Plant committee, reported a $2000 year for a settling tank at the plant will have to be replaced. It had broken down once before and is continuing to break down, he reported.

The committee was authorized to proceed with the replacement.

Council members were advised by Kenneth Kleberger, city engineer, that the state of Illinois probably will follow Missouri in calling for an advancement for secondary treatment for sewage to be under way by 1975 rather than 1982.

City-Leeve District Project

U. S. Funds to be Sought to Drain Dobrey

Federal funds will be sought for construction of a drainage ditch along the Alton & Southern Railroad tracks to take water away from the Cloverview and Dobrey slough areas, it was announced Monday night by Granite City council members by Mayor Partney.

A joint city-leeve district application will be made with the federal Housing and Urban Development agency in Chicago, but there was a council-major dispute over engineering for the project.

In making the visit to the HUD office, Mayor Partney suggested that he should be accompanied by the city attorney and Edward Juneau, engineer of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab, designer of the city sewer and drainage program for the city.

Partney was raised by Alderman Nonn, who said the city's engineer, Kenneth Kleberger of Research Planning & Design Associates, should make the trip, rather than Juneau. The alderman added that the city should "stay with its own engineer who also is familiar with the project."

Flow to Horseshoe Lake

Rutledge asked if the ditch would be inside the city limits, and was advised by Mayor Partney that it would extend from Morrison road to Horseshoe Lake, but was designed to alleviate the drainage problem at Dobrey slough, thus aiding drainage problems in the Cloverview area and adjacent subdivisions in the city.

A motion was presented by Rutledge for the city to pay expenses of a trip to Chicago for the city attorney, mayor and a representative of Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab engineers. Nonn presented an amendment to eliminate the SMS firm and substitute Research Planning & Design Associates.

Mayor Partney stressed that the city had "good luck with HUD in getting funds for the recent sewer project," and he stressed the need for the design engineering firm to have a drainage problem. He asked for the city engineer along with the aldermen of the Seventh Ward and street superintendent to meet with levee district officials to revise the drainage pumping system.

Both are insisting. Partney pointed out Sheppard, Morgan & Schwaab has experience in making applications for federal funds that the firm's services should be utilized.

Nonn was insistent on having the city engineer replace the SMS representative.

Boyad added that Kleberger was preparing plans to solve city sewer and drainage problems and would have them ready in 30 days, that Kleberger explained the plans were for maintenance of the city sewer system, rather than a drainage. He added that he had studied the preliminary plans prepared by SMS for the ditch and was familiar with HUD application forms.

Partney at this point suggested the motion be withdrawn and the matter dropped.

However, the council proceeded to vote on Nonn's amendment, which was approved 10-3, and then approved unanimously the amended motion.

Mayor Partney's proposal was brought out after Alderman Daves complained that a drainage line serving Vesce avenue had been sandbagged again Monday, blocking flow of water to Dobrey slough and resulting in six to eight inches of water in the street.

Daves said he was aware that residents of Angela drive were muzzling levee district pumps to lower the water level of the slough after each rain, but that the city was having drainage problems. He asked for the city engineer along with the aldermen of the Seventh Ward and street superintendent to meet with levee district officials to revise the drainage pumping system.

"Don't Kill Golden Goose" Nonn cautioned Daves in antagonizing the levee district officials. "Don't kill the golden goose. The city can't afford to operate those pumps."

Daves replied, "I'm not trying to start any trouble. I want the levee district to keep the pumps going, but I also don't want the people on Vesce avenue to be flooded."

Nonn replied that the city should adhere to the levee district's ordinance of prohibiting construction in areas where drainage is questionable. "I was in your area," he told Daves, "and I saw the foundations for new houses standing in water."

Daves motion for a meeting of city and levee district officials was approved.

John Polson was elected president of the Granite City Rotary Club at Tuesday's luncheon meeting in the YMCA, attended by 44 members.

Also elected were Harold Gene Briggs, Glenn Thornburg and Larry Tadlock as trustees for a three-year term and Donald Adams for a two-year term.

Glenn Abenroth, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the slate of officers who will take office on July 1.

Lloyd Bauresachs from the Jerseyville school district was the guest speaker and was introduced by Harold Briggs.

He spoke on "Environmental Education," a program to include four districts: Alton, Bethalto, Jerseyville and South-west Plains district, to study air, water and noise pollution.

He stated a proposal has been sent to the government and the districts are hoping to get an appropriation in the sum of $175,000 for the first year and $150,000 for the second year.

Permission has been granted for the group to use the Nike site at Grafton for the program which will include kindergarten through the 12th grade students. Jerseyville will be the administrative district for the program founded to draw attention to environmental education and control.

Such members of the center will visit classrooms working with teachers, taking classes to visit the center, lakes, streams, industry, garbage dumps or any place in need for environmental control.

Goals set in the proposal are for more high school students to participate in the program by using a device on their automobiles to eliminate exhaust fumes, to urge their parents to stop burning leaves and farmers to stop burning off fields; control use of pesticides at home and control of sewage in a community especially where septic tanks are used.

Carl Mathias, president, presided at the meeting, announcing the "chill day" date has been moved back to Tuesday, April 7, and David Norton will serve as chairman. Members of the committee include Marvin Van Metre, John Dolins, Robert Simon, George Eubanks, Ed Meng, Joseph Smith and Richard Lauck. Lauck was appointed as ticket chairman.

Compensation for Volunteers Killed In Line of Duty

An opinion from Attorney General William J. Scott has assured that the families of volunteer policemen, firemen and deputy sheriffs are eligible for compensation of up to $10,000 should the volunteers be killed in the line of duty.

The opinion, requested by State Rep. R. Bruce Waddell of Dundee, is regarded as creating a major concern of hundreds of police and fire volunteers throughout the state.

Such compensation was authorized during the 76th General Assembly (Senate Bill 192). Rep. Waddell told Scott, however, that many police and fire volunteers in his district were concerned that they might not be protected by the statute.

Scott's opinion eliminated the doubt and, at the same time, spelled out the definition of a "volunteer" as a person having regular employment at work other than that of a fireman or police officer, but who is carried on the rolls of a regularly constituted fire department or police unit, the members of which are under the jurisdiction of the corporate authorities of city, village or incorporated town and who may receive some compensation for his services as a fireman or law enforcement officer.

The Illinois attorney general made it clear that the volunteer must be carried on the police or fire department roster as an authorized duly enrolled member. A member of the general public who lends temporary assistance to police or fire units is not considered a volunteer under the law.

While the opinion dealt primarily with fire volunteers, he stressed that "part-time law enforcement officers" part-time police officers who may be employed by the state or local governmental entity and receive compensation for their services should be included within the definition of those eligible for compensation.

Partney Proposes Two Meetings a Month—Save $800

A cutback from three to two council meetings a month, proposed Monday night by Granite City Mayor Partney, was referred to the Ordinance Committee by the mayor as he was giving his committee presentation, and the ordinance would have to be studied by the committee before being presented to the council for action. It was not read Monday night.

Mayor Partney proposes meetings be held on the first and third Monday of each month instead of the present three meetings a month on the first, third and fourth Mondays.

"The savings would amount to $800 a month, and that's enough for a policeman's or a fireman's salary for a month," the mayor added.

Council members are paid $50 a meeting, or presently $150 a month. There is no extra pay for special sessions.

New Locations Set for Pre-School Rubella Clinics

Separate locations and hours for administering Rubella (German Measles) vaccine to pre-school-age youngsters, instead of parents taking small children to neighborhood schools as initially proposed, were announced today by officials in charge of the free inoculation program, scheduled to be held next week in the Quad-Cities. All kindergarten through third grade pupils in Madison, Venice and Granite City school systems, whose parents wish to have the child inoculated with the new Rubella vaccine, will receive the vaccinations during regular school hours on Tuesday in Madison and Venice and on Wednesday in Granite City.

In order to have an inoculation, each youngster must have written parental permission. Official forms, to be signed by a parent or guardian, are being distributed to eligible pupils at school.

For the convenience of parents of pre-schoolers, 12 months of age and over, a facsimile of the permission statement is published with this article and should be submitted at the inoculation centers on the appropriate date.

No child may receive the Rubella inoculation without a signed parental permission form, program officials stressed.

Printed forms may be obtained at local schools, if parents desire, or if additional copies are required.

Pre-school-age children residing in the Madison school district will receive vaccinations from 4 to 6 p.m. Tuesday, at the Madison Memorial Center and the West Madison Memorial Center.

taken for Rubella inoculations to the Venice grade school between 9 and 11 a.m. Tuesday. Parents of Granite City pre-school youngsters may take children to one of four centers, between the hours of 4 and 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Inoculation centers in Granite City will be located at Lincoln Place community center, 822 Niedringhaus avenue; Kirkpatrick Homes recreation center on Namoki road; the office and snack bar facility at Wilson Park ice rink pavilion; and Long Lake recreation hall, 4113 Ponton road.

It was stressed that children should not have a Rubella immunization are those under the care of a doctor for a severe disease, those who have a temperature (fever) on the day of the clinic, or children allergic to chicken or duck products or neomycin.

Parents are cautioned not to confuse the Rubella vaccine with regular measles vaccine. The new vaccine was not available before July 1969.

Those Not Eligible Children who have received any virus vaccine, such as polio, measles or small-pox, for at least two weeks prior to the Rubella inoculation program, also should not be given the German Measles vaccination next week, Dr. Felicia D. Koch, advised.

A total of 13,400 shots of Rubella vaccine, sufficient to inoculate all Quad-City pre-school through third grade children will be furnished by federal and state health agencies. Local physicians and registered nurses have volunteered their services to assist in the special vaccination program, along with school nurses and technicians provided by state health services. Dr. Koch is in charge of coordinating assignments for volunteer medical personnel.

According to information received by local health authorities, a measles epidemic is expected late this year and early in 1971, resulting in the program being put in motion to eliminate potential hazards in the local communities.

Deadly to Unborn

Totally different from regular measles, Rubella (German Measles) appears to be a mild, harmless, common three-day childhood infection. When Rubella infects a pregnant mother and her unborn child, the results are deadly, causing birth defects and death.

During a Rubella epidemic in 1964, a total of 20,000 infants were born dead in the United States, and another 30,000 were seriously handicapped... blind, deaf, mentally retarded, malformed, or with defects of the heart or other organs.

It is to halt the spread of the apparently mild, childhood disease Rubella to pregnant women that the new vaccine was developed.

The National Foundation of the March of Dimes, which is spearheading the preventive program with the State Health Department, notes that children vaccinated against Rubella are completely immunized so they can't catch, carry or spread Rubella.

"Our only defense against another Rubella epidemic is vaccination—but it is a sure defense," medical authorities emphasize.

"To improve the quality of education for the handicapped child during the present period of expansion in teacher numbers, many teachers need to the field will have to receive additional training," Trimpe said. "The unit is staffed by professionals knowledgeable in the field of special education and instructional materials."

"The unit will be open from Monday through Thursday, in Wood River from noon to 8 p.m. and in Edwardsville from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m."

Council Stalls Application for Housing Funds

A resolution submitted to the city by the Granite City Housing Authority seeking confirmation of the commission's request for an $80,000 study grant for added housing units for the elderly was taken under advisement Monday night by Granite City council members.

Alderman Robertson requested copies for each alderman to study before any action is taken.

David Morgan, executive director of the housing authority, was present for the council session, and in answering the aldermen's questions, said no site or type of development has yet been decided.

When Alderman Nomm remarked, "I'm not for a high-rise apartment for the elderly," Morgan asked the council "not to close the door" on any phase of the project at the present time.

He explained the authority has no land and has no plans at present, adding that there is a definite need, based on a waiting list, for at least 200 more housing units for the elderly.

Morgan said the preliminary grant is being sought from the federal Housing Assistance Administration and that the project might be given under contract to a developer who will provide the site.

Morgan told the council that high-rise apartments for the elderly have caused no problems and have proven successful in other communities, including St. Louis where there have been difficulties with family high-rise units.

Displanted housing also was discussed by council members, who asked the city building inspector to determine the conditions of a duplex unit at 2014-16 Omaha street and three structures in North Granite on 28th street. Basarich asked for an inspection of service station premises at 15th and State streets to determine if a junk yard is being established there.

The attorney was asked to write letters to owners of the properties involved.

Announced by Mayor Parney was the resignation of Mrs. Kathryn Stief as secretary in the inspection department offices and the 30-day appointment of Mrs. Dolores Lane, 2432 Delmar avenue, to the post. "I had hoped we could eliminate the job, but there's too much work in the offices," the mayor said.

Registration Will End Friday at Adult Center

Registration by Quad-City residents for a series of evening educational classes at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center will end Friday, it was announced this week by Duane Rankin, VLTIC administrator.

Enrollment totals 54 in one or more of the special courses offered in the first evening program, Rankin said.

Expansion of the regular daytime courses at the adult vocational training center was authorized by the Venice board of education last month to permit persons holding day jobs or having family commitments to take advantage of special training programs, he explained.

No tuition will be charged Quad-Cityans who enroll in the evening courses, Rankin reminded prospective students with course material, including text books, provided free. Instruction offered at Venice-Lincoln is subsidized with funds contributed by federal and state agencies.

Flag Half-Staff Resolution Ok'd By GC Council

A resolution for city flags to be placed at half-staff during the time a serviceman who lost his life in line of duty is lying in state here was approved unanimously Monday night by Granite City council members.

The resolution, similar to the one adopted over a year ago by the city of Venice, stresses the need for "public respect in gratitude for a Granite Cityman who has made the supreme sacrifice."

Last Saturday, the city of Venice was given national recognition by the Amvets for initiating the special honors for servicemen. The Amvets have initiated a program seeking adoption of the ordinances in cities throughout the country.

Fund Transfers
The fund transfer resolution was for $57,770 to be taken from the federal emergency disaster grants and placed in the following general funds: fire department, $22,400; general government, $3,500; city hall, $350; police department, $24,100; inspection department, $470; dog fund, $400; school crossing guards, $2,000; and special sewer fund, $20.

A retired farmer, Mr. Lamkin, died Sunday night at St. Anthony's Hospital. He was a 20-year resident of Worden and a member of the First Baptist Church there.

Two Autos Collide
Autos driven by David Dugroff, 3902 Franklin avenue, and Charles W. Ziegler, 1025 Third street, Venice, collided at the 4:45 p.m. Monday at St. Clair avenue and Namooki road.

A survey showed that the production and service industries constructed, expanded or planned number 117, with investment expenditures of more than $881,000,000 for 62 of the facilities.

Included is one new plant in the Quad-Cities area—the new Chemco Metals Corp. facilities under construction north of Mitchell. The firm will produce high purity copper and will employ about 120 persons.

Stewart Stoddard is Commissioned by USAF
Stewart A. Stoddard, husband of the former Linda Osuchowski of Granite City, has been commissioned a second lieutenant upon completion of the U. S. Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps program at the University of Illinois.

Attempted Auto Theft
Robert Galas, 2322 East 25th street, reported at 11:30 p.m. Monday that someone attempted to steal his 1957 auto from the Granite City Steel Co. parking lot after 3 p.m. A window was pried open and the dashboard was damaged in an attempt to get to the ignition wires.

Pvt. Elizabeth Neeley
Assigned at Hospital

Army Private Elizabeth A. Neeley, formerly of Madison, was recently assigned to Madison General Hospital, Tacoma, Wash., and is now on duty in the personnel division.

A native of Madison, Pvt. Neeley graduated from the Madison High school in 1960. After entering the Army last July, she completed basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bluford Neeley, 2035 Troy street, Madison.

Also placed on file was a letter from the finance director for the city of Decatur to Mayor Parney advising him that while the city of Decatur pays the 13 school crossings guards in the city, the salaries of four are reimbursed under an agreement with the school district. The school board here has a legal opinion based on a specific state law that crossing guards in a municipality cannot be paid by a school district.

Alderman Schuler suggested a meeting be arranged for representatives of the city, school district and park district to discuss mutual problems.

A long bid was received from Miller-Wolf Agency to provide a $833,945 bond for Granite City Township Tax Collector E. R. "Pat" Rich with a premium of $1538. The bid was accepted.

Last month's permits included one home, $22,000; four additions, $85,000; one carport, $800; for remodeling and repairs, $9180; five for commercial industrial purposes, $41,300; one miscellaneous, $50,000; and one to raze a structure, $200.

Permits were obtained late in February by Richard Branding, a metal building at Branding's service station, 1103 Niedringhaus avenue, $5900; Pat's Discount store, 1938 S State street, remodeling, $800; and Ralph Brown, 3224 Newell drive, a carport, $900.

Mudge Backs Plan For Election of Judges

Dick H. Mudge, Edwardsville lawyer and Democratic candidate for state senator of the 53rd senatorial district, testified recently before the Judiciary committee of the Illinois Constitutional Convention on a plan requiring the non-partisan election of judges.

The plan, which is supported by many lawyers and was approved by the Illinois Bar Association conference held in Belleville in November 1969, provides for nomination of judges on separate non-partisan ballots, on which voters would ballot on the same day as the regular state and national primary elections.

The primary ballots would provide for nomination of twice the number of judges to be elected. The names of the nominees would be presented to the voters in the regular November election, also on a separate ballot and on a non-partisan basis.

Jet Injector Method Instructions Friday

Local physicians and registered nurses who will take part in the Rubella vaccination program in Quad-City schools March 10 and March 11, are invited to participate in a special instruction session on use of jet injector equipment, set for 7 p.m. Friday at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus.

Administering Rubella (German Measles) inoculations, utilizing the jet injector method, will be demonstrated by James Donoho, federal coordinator for the state of Illinois Rubella Vaccine Program. The session will be held in Room 3405 in SIU-SW's Peck building, starting promptly at 7 p.m. tomorrow.

Parking spaces for those attending the workshop will be available in Parking Lot B, west of the SIU-SW Student Center, Dr. Felicia D. Koch of Granite City said. The local physician is serving as coordinator for volunteer medical personnel who will assist in the Rubella inoculation program.

Dr. Koch cautioned parents of pre-school through third grade youngsters planning to be inoculated with the free German Measles vaccine that their child should not receive any virus vaccine, such as polio, measles or small-pox, for at least two weeks prior to the Rubella vaccination.

Any pre-school through third grade child who will receive the Rubella vaccination should not be taken to the immunization clinic at St. Elizabeth Hospital this Saturday for other scheduled vaccinations.

Estes Pledges Improvements in Sheriff's Office

Full application of the merit system in operation of the sheriff's office along with efforts to improve conditions and salaries of deputies was pledged today by James Estes, Chouteau township, Democratic candidate for nomination as sheriff in the March 17 primary election.

In return, Estes asserted, "I will demand a neat, courteous, polite, honest and efficient department."

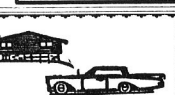

Estes said that if elected sheriff he would request four women deputies to transport women mental patients and women prisoners, and to assist in clerical work at the county jail. Deputies, he said, would be required to pick up one of the women deputies to accompany women prisoners or mental patients when they are being transferred.

Wants Road Signs
Estes said he also would request the county board to appropriate funds to place nameplates on all county roads so that it will improve efficiency in answering calls.

He said he would hold prejudice against no one or any city, village or community, and would work with day deputies as well as night deputies to improve the speed and efficiency of the sheriff's department.

Estes, a former deputy sheriff, is opposed in the Democratic primary by John Maeras, now county treasurer, who has the regular organization backing. It is the only contest for a county office in the primary balloting.

A Tree Grows in Mani, Bringing Cash Crops to the Impoverished

(Church World Service)

The photograph shows almond seedlings about to be planted by a Greek villager in an economically deprived area of Mani. They will yield him a cash crop to supplement the present $42 per capita annual income.

U. S. churches cooperate with the Orthodox Church of Greece in this project, one of many which will be aided by the One Great Hour of Sharing on Sunday, March 8.

"Fit only for eagles' nests," it sometimes has been said of the mountainous western finger of land that extends southward from Peloponnese, the peninsula forming the southern part of the Greek mainland.

This peninsula-of-a-peninsula is known as Mani. The name derives from a medieval tower, the Castle of Maina, and the inhabitants are called Mainiots. The wild craggy terrain—and the towering Tagetes mountain range that isolates Mani from the rest of Peloponnese—keep the region safe from the Turkish rule to which the rest of Greece was for centuries subjected.

But today, the isolation is economic. The per capita income of the Mainiots, living in villages scattered through the mountains, is $42 annually. The Orthodox Church of Greece, aware of the desperate human needs of this seriously deprived area, is receiving the cooperation of Church World Service in trying to meet the need.

Sometimes this year, villagers will harvest their first cash crops from almond, walnut and apricot trees grown from seedlings distributed two years ago by CWS. Fifteen thousand seedlings one and two years old were given to 300 families at that time.

An estimated net cash return of $10 per tree is expected this year, with more mature trees in succeeding years yielding $20 per tree. Plans call for annual distribution of 5000 trees.

Villagers will be expected to pay 20% of the cost of the trees, as well as providing care.

To reduce the cost of seedlings, CWS has leased a tract of four acres and planted 20,000 seedlings. The small trees will be ready for villagers to transplant in the fall or winter of 1970.

The mountainsides deemed fit only for eagles' nests have proved hospitable not only to almond, walnut and apricot, but to an impressive list of additional seedlings which will be distributed. Included are mulberry, chestnut, edible olives, hazelnut, pistachio, cypress, eucalyptus, Caragana, poplar, orange, lemon and avocado.

The Mani Project, as the total effort is known, also covers the western peninsula, Epidauria-Limira, and the island of Eleftherios. In addition to the gardening, livestock and poultry, a feed mill, a farm school, honey production, dairy and meat packing and handicrafts are also facets of the program.

Churches in the U. S. contribute to the Mani Project through One Great Hour of Sharing, CROP, the community apportionment of Church World Service and similar efforts.

Real Estate Tax Break for Owners Aged 65, Some Disabled Veterans

(Tri-City and Illinois Bar Associations)

Many homeowners who are 65 years of age or older and disabled veterans are getting a reduction in their real estate taxes.

The 65-year-old or older homeowner is eligible for a $1500 exemption in the assessed value of the property for real estate tax purposes.

The new "homestead exemption" was enacted by the Illinois General Assembly as House Bill 1176 and was approved by Governor Ogilvie.

The statute provides that, aside from age, the only other requirements are that the person must occupy the residential unit and own it in his or her own name or in joint ownership with a spouse but with no other person.

Another measure, House Bill 898, provides for an exemption of $15,000 in the assessed value of a home owned and occupied by a veteran with a service-connected disability or by his unmarried widow.

The statute provides that the federal government has authorized payment for "specifically adopted homes" pursuant to federal statutes.

The exemptions are effective in the assessment year ending Jan. 1, 1970. The applicant for a homestead exemption (HB 1176) must have reached the age of 65 on or before that date in order for his exemption to be applied to the tax bill for that year.

Savings made possible by the exemption will depend on local tax rates.

For example, if there is a $5 per $100 tax rate, the $1500 exemption in the assessed value of the property would save $75 in his annual tax bill.

Eligible persons should check with the local tax assessor's office to determine the first deadline for application for the exemptions. Application must be made on a form provided by the tax assessor.

Information required on the application for exemption can be expected to include:

- (1) The identifying number of the property.
- (2) Evidence of ownership.
- (3) A declaration by the owner that he or she meets the age requirement and has title to the property, occupies it as a residence and that the applicant has not applied for a homestead exemption on any other property in Illinois.

Democrats, GOP Likely to Remain Split Despite Independents, Ideological Strife

"Regardless of how you may actually vote, what do you usually consider yourself?—A Republican, a Democrat or an independent? There is generally some slippage of the party that failed to win the presidency and the Democrats have not escaped it, decreasing from 52% to 48% of those polled during the past two years. The portion of the national population aligned with the GOP meanwhile has risen from 31% to 33%, with independents increasing from 17% to 19%.

As obvious that the "out" party still has considerable strength. And it is not completely "out," since it controls both the House and Senate. Republicans rallied in 1966 and 1968 from a position of great weakness in 1964. Democrats also can look ahead with confidence.

But an impression that total collapse is near is given by Sen. Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia, No. 3 ranking Republican in the Senate. He said the GOP movement has been "some kind of a national organization" but added, "I think that we ought to perhaps start all over."

As Byrd noted in later remarks, what he is thinking of is elimination of the Republican party as well, with subsequent formation of Liberal and Conservative parties. The proposal is intriguing but unlikely, and perhaps undesirable. It is true that the new labels would be more informative, but they might accentuate philosophical differences so might deepen division within the nation might result.

Partly because both of the existing parties include a complete liberal-moderate-conservative spectrum, it has become possible to transfer governmental authority with a handshake rather than at gunpoint—a knack which some countries unfortunately have not yet mastered.

National Award to Venice Spotlights Dedication to 'Duty, Honor, Country'

"An American citizen that is not embarrassed to endorse patriotism," in the words of Congressman Price, Venice stands tall this week—its stature nationally recognized by Amvets, public officials and countless Americans.

Its ordinance on lowering flags when local war dead are returned for burial has captured widespread interest. And it has become a timely reminder that love of our nation and its ideals is both admirable and necessary if democracy is to be kept alive.

The speech said it all: Secretary of State

Local Government Evolved Slowly In State Constitution, Legislation

(Public Administration Service)

The evolution of local government in Illinois has been slow but marked in the constitutional history of Illinois.

County, township and incorporated municipality preceded the state as forms of organized government and, despite a major role in the affairs of the people, they always have had the lesser position in an almost feudal relationship with the state.

County government commenced 38 years before Illinois' statehood in 1818, and the legislature, claiming on the conquests of George Rogers Clark, named the territory "Northwest Territory" and established rudimentary, if unsuccessful, county and township government.

General Arthur St. Clair, first governor of the Northwest Territory, established the first county in 1790 and named it for himself.

County government developed continuously through succeeding administrations of the Northwest Territory, Indiana Territory and Illinois Territory, so that it was a fairly elaborate system by 1818.

References to county government in the first Illinois Constitution of 1818 were meager concerning only the election and terms of county commissioners, sheriff and coroner.

The Constitution of 1848 featured county government foremostly, establishing most of what now Article X, and the basis of the power of the legislature to change

Powell—"Now is the time for Americans who respect this flag to stand up and be counted." "Freedom requires respect of authority and assumption of responsibility. These (four Venice) heroes placed God and their country first. National Amvets commander Combs—"Support President Nixon in striving for an honorable peace in Vietnam so the flags of Venice will never have to fly at half-staff again."

Transition Gives Madison Voters Chance To Redefine Role of Individual Citizen

For those Madisonians who see more benefits than drawbacks in having a strong political organization, it would be only natural for them to attempt to maintain the status quo by substituting a new leader to replace their late mayor and successor who can give leadership on nearly all civic and political issues as well as on those involving the municipal government.

Whether or not this is what occurs, it might be well for the citizenry to devote a bit of thought and soul-searching to the question during the interim period preceding the spring or summer mayoralty election. As this was being written, there had been no announcement of a selection, but growing sentiment for advance agreement on a single nominee.

What deserves consideration at this point is the extent of power associated with the office. This can differ greatly with the officeholder, depending on the approach taken by various mayors and on the circumstances which take time tonight and attend the face. One of the circumstances is the public attitude—how willing it is to give up individual voices and submerge them within a relatively unified group in order to put a good strength behind the stands which are taken.

A "bread and butter" policy has been one of the primary elements in the structure of the Madison organization throughout the history of the village and city.

Patronage workers in local, county and state jobs formed the nucleus along with their relatives and friends. In 1964, when the transition, it did not hurt one's chances a bit if he was a member of a large family, with many of the members still residing in Madison and of voting age.

There is much to be said for the development of loyal staffs of employees, and for co-ordinate efforts to carry out progressive programs. But there can be a partial loss of freedom if such loyalty becomes so certain that officials can take it for granted and disregard public opinion on a particular issue.

Whether it be ten hours or bidding-purchasing policies or law enforcement—uniformity, officials can do almost as they please—not as the public may wish—if they know they are going to remain in office anyway, garnering votes by promising job security.

It is not quite this simple or clear-cut, of course. Most Madison governmental decisions undoubtedly coincide with the wishes of most residents, who in what democracy it all about.

But in the current transition, Madisonians ought to be aware that the kind of ground rules they place in effect formally or informally in 1970 may be with them for a long time. The 79-year history has included 32-year and 28-year tenures of consecutive service by two mayors. The present opportunity for a shift in emphasis may not still be attainable unless grasped now.

It has been a Madison tradition to support a strong political apparatus. This may not change, but a little less uniformity could go a long way toward assuring that such organizational strength will be used for rather than against the interest of individual Madison citizens.

The Siren's Song Conveys a Message

We have found a good way to keep Thursday editorial comments in perspective: Prepare a rough draft of them on Tuesday, when local "end of the world" sirens are sounding periodically to keep them in working order for Armageddon. The tornado- or enemy-attack warning serves as an effective reminder that the subject being discussed may not, after all, be quite as important as it seemed a few minutes earlier.

Tips Are Part of Taxable Income

(Internal Revenue Service)

(Q) Are tips considered income, a regular job and part-time work for myself. (A) Yes, and they must be included in gross income for tax purposes. If you were under $7800, then you should pay self-employment tax on part or all of your earnings from self-employment—but only if your net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more.

(Q) The address shown on the label that came with my return is wrong. Should I change it? (A) Yes, make the change right on the label and send it back on the return you file so that IRS records can be corrected.

(Q) I have two sources of $7800. (A) If your wages were under $7800, then you should pay self-employment tax on part or all of your earnings from self-employment—but only if your net earnings from self-employment are $400 or more.

Slight Gain in Spendable Income In January, Gross Earnings Drop

(Bureau of Labor Statistics)

Purchasing power of the nation's rank-and-file workers declined for the fourth consecutive month in January. The decline resulted from the usual seasonal drop in average hourly earnings and a further rise in consumer prices.

Gross weekly earnings of production and nonsupervisory workers dropped 81 cents between December and January, to $118.31.

The year-to-month decline was attributable to a half-hour reduction in the average workweek, which more than offset average hourly earnings. Average hourly earnings were 1.1% below the December level and 0.2% below a year ago.

Spendable earnings, or after-tax pay, were higher in January, reflecting changes in federal income taxes incorporated in the 1970 Tax Reform Act.

Take-home pay for the worker with three dependents increased 22 cents, to $102.52. The increase for the single worker amounted to 78 cents, raising the net pay for the week to $90.42.

Compared to January 1969, spendable earnings were up $5.84, or 6.9%, for the worker with three dependents and $6.18, or 7.1%, for the single worker.

Rising prices continued to erode gains in take-home pay. January's real earnings, with three dependents, real spendable earnings—take-home pay expressed in 1957-58 dollars—were down 0.5% from December's, to $77.78.

Real earnings for the worker with three dependents were 0.2% below a year ago and 2.3% below the high of September 1968. Real earnings for the worker with three dependents have remained below year-ago levels for 12 months in a row.

For the single worker, real earnings were 0.5% above their year-ago level and 0.8% above a year ago.

These small increases reflected the greater comparative tax benefits for single persons resulting from the 1970 tax changes.

The Consumer Price Index rose 0.4% in January to 131.8 (1957-58 equals 100). Price increases for services, particularly transportation, accounted for a major part of the boost. De-escalation of food prices was a significant factor in food prices, commodity prices rose only slightly as prices declined for apparel and new and used cars.

The January rise put the all-items index 6.2% above the year ago.

A review of major components of the Price Index shows the price gains over the last 12 months, from October to January, were:

All items, 6.0%; commodities, 4.4%; food 11.2%; apparel 2.6%; durables 1.6%; services, 8.4%; rent 4.0%; household services less rent 7.6%; transportation services 21.6%; medical care 6.9%; other services 4.8%.

A similar comparison between January 1969 and January 1970 follows:

All items, 6.2%; commodities, 5.4%; food 7.1%; apparel 4.9%; other non-durables 3.9%; durables 4.7%; services, 7.9%; rent 4.0%; other household services 3.6%; transportation 9.8%; medical care services 6.9%; and other services 5.0%.

Charges for consumer services rose only an accelerated 0.9%, largely because of a sharp rise in transportation services.

Higher local transit fares in New York City, plus widespread increases in costs of registering, insuring and repairing automobiles, were responsible.

Prices of medical care services moved up as physicians' and dentists' fees and hospital daily service charges continued to rise. Household services moved up more slowly than in recent months because of a drop in prices of residential telephone services.

For prices more than usual for January, 0.6%, despite a contra-seasonal decline in prices of fresh vegetables, and were an important factor in the index advance. Prices of eggs, poultry and milk, which usually rise in January, were up appreciably.

Beef and pork prices rose more than seasonally. This is the first increase in beef prices since July of last year.

Prices for commodities other than food, on the average, declined less than a seasonally. Apparel commodities showed a full seasonal price drop of 1.3%; the decline reflected the effects of clearance sales.

Prices of other non-durable goods climbed 0.2%, principally because of increases for new and used cars, alcoholic beverages away from home, and cigarettes.

Consumer durable goods posted a seasonal increase as prices of new cars failed to decline as much as usual and house prices climbed sharply.

Used car prices were down 2.8% in January. Approximately 100,000 workers will receive cost-of-living wage increases based on the Consumer Price Index for January.

About 55,000 workers in the automotive and aircraft industries will receive hourly wage increases ranging from four to eight cents, based on the change in the national index since October 1968.

Additional 18,000 workers, mainly in the automotive equipment industry, will get pay raises ranging from seven to nine cents an hour, as a result of the rise in the national index between January 1969 and January 1970.

County Crop Yields

Crop yields in Madison county averaged slightly higher in 1969 than in 1968, but 1968 was not a good year.

Corn averaged 76 bushels per acre in 1969 compared with 74 bushels in 1968, according to the Illinois Cooperative Crop Reporting Service.

Soybeans averaged 30 bushels per acre in 1969, up two bushels over 1968. Wheat at 36 bushels per acre in 1969 was up one bushel per acre over 1968.

Record high yields were made in 1967 when corn averaged 96 bushels per acre and soybeans 32 bushels. Highest average for wheat was 42 bushels in 1966.

Today 2.4 million fewer farmworkers in the United States are producing 14% more farm products on 25 million fewer acres of cropland than in 1960.

The average farmworker produces enough farm products to supply 45 people—38 in this country and five overseas.

Helping farm workers achieve these impressive gains in on-farm productivity are the many workers in farm input or marketing industries. Every farm worker is now backed up by more than two nonfarm employees in agriculturally related industries.

Rewiring City Hall Poses Cost Problem

Alderman Emerald Dawes, reporting on the condition of wiring in the city hall building, told Granite City council members Monday night that it was possible the city inspector would "condemn" the whole building, if something isn't done.

He recommended that funds for rewiring be included in the city's 1970-71 budget for the project. "I've looked the wiring over and it appears to be in bad shape, and I think, Mr. Mayor, that funds for rewiring should be provided."

Mayor Partney said he was preparing to submit a 1970-71 budget to the council within a short time. He advised Dawes that several years ago bids were received to rewire the city hall. "If I recall correctly," the mayor said, "the low figure was around $30,000."

Dawes replied, "I guess I'd better sit down."

'Parked' Car Hits Sign

A car parked on Fourth street at Broadway in Venice was struck by another auto about 11:10 p.m. Tuesday, causing it to roll about 60 feet along Fourth street and crash into a sign post at the Venice Gas & Oil Co. police reported. The mishap occurred, officers said, when a car driven by Clarence J. Day, 708 North 27th place, skidded on wet pavement as Day was turning off Broadway into Fourth. His car struck the parked car owned by Joseph J. Garcia, 915 Reynolds streets, Madison, knocking it out of its parking place and causing it to roll. Both cars and the sign post were damaged.

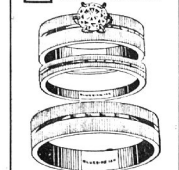

Coins Not Among Loot

A coin collection was not among the loot stolen in a burglary at the apartment of Terry Hendrickson, 1810 August street, as listed in a police report last Friday, he informed the Press-Record. He said the collection was taken in a burglary of another apartment in the same building.

New Turbine Units to Bolster Area Power

Installation of four new gas turbine units capable of delivering 104,000 kilowatts of power into the Illinois Power Co. system is under way on a site near Stallings, just off Highway 162 northeast of Granite City, and should be ready for use as a supplemental power supply this summer.

Each of the new turbine units will be completely contained in a separate building and will be controlled from the Wood River Power plant, from which the units may be started or stopped in any combination and burn whichever fuel is chosen. If the natural gas supply is lost, the units will switch automatically to fuel oil.

The fuel oil tank which will be 48 feet high and 42 feet in diameter will be surrounded by a seven-foot-high dike which would serve to keep the oil confined if the tank should rupture.

Through their own computers the units will be controlled by microwave from the Wood River Power plant, from which the units may be started or stopped in any combination and burn whichever fuel is chosen. If the natural gas supply is lost, the units will switch automatically to fuel oil.

located at a fork of the Illinois Terminal and Norfolk & Western railroads and formerly was the site of a tannery. Several old buildings were demolished to make room for the installations. Because of the high water table, a total of 362 pilings was driven 31 feet below the excavations and surrounded with compacted crushed rock to provide a solid base for the four-foot-deep concrete foundations.

One Control Point

While the units are to be installed in pairs and fully self-contained, there will be one control point for each two units. A well on the site will provide water with which to cool the air for the turbines. Hot air is reduced in size as it is drawn through water-cooled screens similar to furnace filters, is then compressed, forced into the combustion

Environment Theme of Weekly Editors' Meet

Again this summer, Illinois will be the scene of an international gathering of newspaper editors. The 16th annual session of the International Conference of Weekly Newspaper Editors is set for July 12-17 at Pere Marquette State Park, Graton.

The 1970 discussion theme will be "Can Man Cope With His Environment?" A Serious Search for the Alternatives to War, Famine, Pestilence and Untimely Death." Karl L. chamber, mixed with fuel and burned to provide the power for the turbine generator. The company explained that power will leave the units at 13,800 volts but a new transformer will step up voltage to 138,000 volts before it is fed into the Stallings substation and on into the Illinois Power system.
